Foreword

YEAR after year CHAGRIN HIGH continues to expand in scope and activity. Day by day its students grow in knowledge and efficiency. May this yearbook not only prove to be a symbol of that expansion and that growth, but may it also serve as a connecting link from this generation to the next in helping the latter to form the impetus for progress in a still greater age in the history of C. F. H. S.

WHITNEY E. STONEBURNER

Superintendent

A.B., O. W. U., M. A., O. S. U.

"It is his virtue that he exists with even patience, and awakens every morning with a renewed appetite for work and pleasure."

Our superintendent always has a smile for everyone and can ever be found making friends among the students; eager to help by lending a willing hand.

FLORENCE B. HANNA
Principal
Ph. B., Heidelberg
"To know, to esteem, to love."

A friend to all and a willing guide to Friendship Girls, we find her ever ready to aid.

LOWELL REAM
B.S., Wooster
Coach, Science, History

"A wise man will make opportunities though he finds none."

Coach has proved to be more than an athletic instructor. He has been a friend to all, and a pal to many; besides raising the athletic standing of our school.

MRS. ZOE LONG FOUTS
Supervisor of Music
"A voice as clear as a singing bird,
A laugh like the rippling water."

Only through her hard work have we been able to achieve a high standard in our music.

ANNE M. WEIDMANN
English
Ped., B.A.B., Baldwin-Wallace

"Wisdom is at the base of all good management."

She is one of the high school's best friends, and the seniors' unfailing guide. She never deserts us in our troubles.

George W. Behner
Science
A.B., Western Reserve
"I am a part of all I have met."

And we surely are more than over-joyed to have met "George." He's our favorite and understands us all.

Zenith 1926

VIVIENNE GOLL French, Mathematics B.S., A.B., Ohio State

"Grace was in her steps, Heaven in her eye: In every gesture, dignity and love."

Miss Goll, by her quiet and pretty way, holds our unfailing faith and admiration.

> GRACE E. JENKINS Commercial Oberlin Business College

"A brow that knows not how to frown."

Our commercial teacher is liked by all. Her ever-lasting cheerfulness finds her many friends.

> DWIGHT LYONS B.S., Muskingum Manual Training

"What do we live for if not to make life less difficult to others?" Mr. Lyons also lends a helping hand to the Junior High by teaching our boys Manual Training.

> FLORENCE J. GIFFORD History, English A.B., Western Reserve

"Quiet, helpful, and true as steel."
We all know her as "Florence." She has one closer tie than all the others, for she is an alumna of C. F. H. S.

> MILDRED WHEATCRAFT English, Librarian B.A., Ohio State

"There is none like her, none."

Miss Wheatcraft is new to us, but she already has our highest esteem. We all know her as Librarian.

> ALICE M. KANAVEL Junior High

"What student came, but what you planned her path?" Miss Kanavel is the guiding light of the Junior High.

> ZELMA M. BOWMAN Social Science A.B., Lake Erie

"Our happiness in this world depends upon the affections we are able to inspire."

Miss Bowman has been with us three years and now we couldn't do without her.

> ELIZABETH JENKINS B.S., Ohio State Domestic Science

"The same, sweet smile she had for all."

Coach has been more than successful in instructing our girls. She's always full of pep and enthusiasm and we all love her.

Senior Class History

N the fall of 1914 a merry group of children began to mount the stairs of education. Miss Russel helped them over the first step and a group of educators have been doing their best to assist them over the uppermost round of the ladder.

As the years passed by and the steps yet to climb diminished in number, the group grew larger and larger, its members more efficient and versatile, until now the Class of '26, the thirty-ninth to graduate from Chagrin Falls high school, is not only one of the largest but also one of the most capable in the history of the school.

Her athletes are unconquerable, her musicians incomparable, her debaters irrefutable, her students unsurpassable. It is our greatest pride to feel that all the illustrious deeds performed by the members of the Class of '26 have been completed to the honor and glory of old Chagrin'. E. M. '26.

Junior Class History

BOUT three years ago, a new regiment was enlisted to take part in a siege of that invincible town "Knowledge." On September eighth, nineteen hundred twenty-three, the order came stating that we were to approach said town from the most advantageous point—Chagrin Falls High School.

We arrived at C. F. H. S. shortly after dawn, a heterogeneous body. There were several older regiments whom we seemed to amuse for some reason. The Commander-in-Chief, a black haired man with a kindly face, immediately addressed us and divided our regiment into battalions.

The most annoying events in all our trench life were the occasions on which a class of people called instructors (who claimed to be our friends) indulged in sapping activities and pelted us with zeros, whenever opportunity was presented. In June after the last of the monthly inspection of our mental capacity, we were dismissed on a three months' furlough, returning in September.

Our return was heralded by the incessant fire of the sappers and zeros were not infrequent.

The only noteworthy interruption of our work was an occasional athletic contest, with some of our regiment wearing the decorations (namely jewelry) of the older regiments. We gained steadily on the enemy and by June had taken their second battery. As a reward most of us received a leave of absence until the following fall. We were now the junior regiment. We had learned to economize our time and consequently had a few spare moments of amusements, such as dances, parties, and clubs. Every month our mental capacity was inspected, the results becoming more satisfactory to us.

By this time we had discovered the sappers were a great help, since they taught us to keep our heads bent to the tasks before us. Our quarters have been changed several times since we entered, as has our name.

Our Commander-in-Chief is the ablest man on record, and under his leadership and that of his able staff, our defeats are becoming fewer and our efficiency is increasing. The "Besieged Town" still stands, but we are trying to remember that every trench taken brings us nearer to our goal and we are doing it for Chagrin High!

Sophomore Class History

A LL in all we are forty-two and a very happy bunch under the care of Miss Goll. A great many of us started to school here in Chagrin and were taught the A, B, C's by Miss Russel.

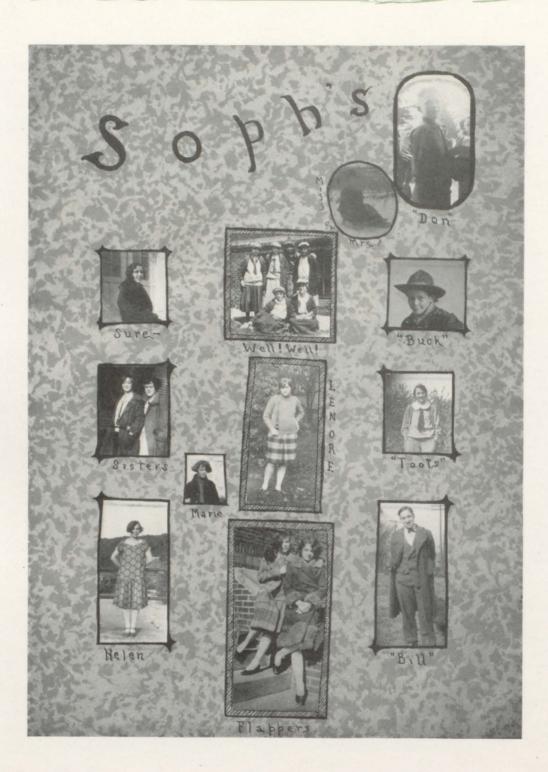

We are very sorry to have lost a few of our members and very glad to welcome new ones that joined our class as it climbed the ladder of grades.

When we first started to school in the little white building our ambition was to get over into the big building. When we got there we envied those who were in the high school building and now that we are sophomores our desire is to become seniors and we are slowly succeeding toward that goal in spite of many obstacles.

Our class is already beginning to show some talent and perhaps even a little genius, so you may rightfully expect great things from the Class of '28 in the near future.

Freshman Class History

"THE CALL"

Somewhere a voice is calling, Echoing through the hall; Somewhere a voice is calling, Anguished its accents fall.

"Come to me, O Ye Freshmen, Come, the call be heeding, "Tis your High School that entreats you, "Tis your High School that is pleading."

"Come with your pluck and courage, Come in your numbers strong; Come with your wit and talent, It is you we need ere long."

"THE ANSWER"

And we with our High School spirit, Nourished and burning bright; Hasten to answer the summons, To give to you of our might.

We will give to your Glee our best voices, To the Orchestra harmony add, Athletics will be strengthened, The Debating Team twice glad.

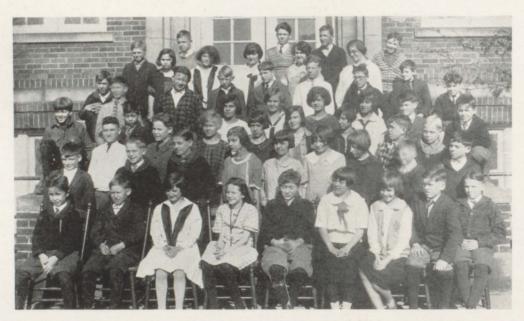

We will give to our high school teachers Obedience and effort too. To all the high school traditions, Faith and allegiance true.

And so we come—The Freshmen—In answer to your call,
To help make C. F. H. S.
The champion of them all.

Football 1925

HE 1925 football season proved to be another successful one for C. F. H. S. gridders. Under the able drilling of Coach Ream the Orange and Black slid through a muddy season for its second Cuyahoga county championship in Class A.

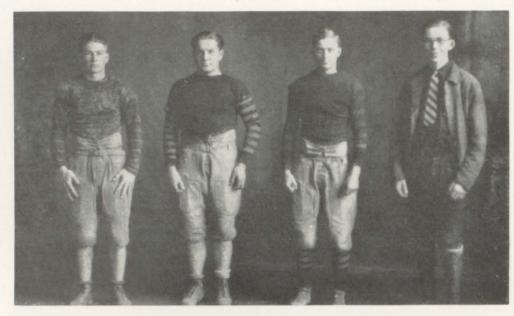

With Captain Rees, Hartman, Hopkins and the Nelisse twins as a nucleus, Coach Ream built up a team of which all the students of C. F. H. S. were justly proud, and which lost but one game, that being to Niles, a school which was completely out of Chagrin's class.

The squad points with pride to a record which shows that Chagrin not only defeated all her county rivals, but also beat Chardon and Willoughby, two independent opponents, and held Rocky River, two-time champion of the Greater Cleveland Conference, to a scoreless tie.

With five letter men back next year under the experienced leadership of Captain Honeywell, Chagrin has an excellent chance of bringing home a third championship in 1926.

Earl Davis, Charles Rees, Robert Stern, Henry Church

EARL DAVIS

Guard

Davis was a fierce tackler and a hard fighter. Being injured in the Niles game he was out of the line-up for a few weeks but came back strong, and finished the season like a whirlwind.

CHARLES REES "Fat" Captain Tackle

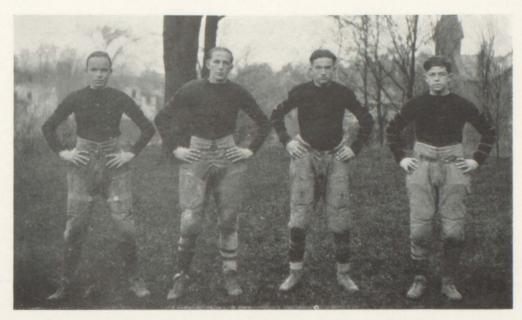

Fat was missed in the first few games of the year because of injuries and nursed a bad ankle and shoulder all season. Injuries, however, did not keep Charlie from playing his usual aggressive game at either center, tackle, or halfback. His graduation means the loss of an experienced, capable player and a fine leader.

ROBERT STERN "Monk" Guard

When a man, almost single handed, can keep an opposing team from scoring a touchdown while in the shadow of his own goal line he's pretty good, isn't he? Well, that's just what Monk did three times in the Willoughby game and that fracas was just an oustanding example of what he did all season.

HENRY CHURCH "Hank" Manager

Hank "the man with the fuel," was our capable student manager. He handled all the arrangements in fine shape, and made football trips a pleasure. His assistants also did commendable work throughout the season.

Robert Milam, Robert Bradley, Elwyn Van Valkenburg, John Honeywell

BOB MILAM Guard

Bob was initiated to his first year of football and proved to be a real find. He was a cool, steady player and a low, hard tackler. In spite of numerous head injuries and hard knocks, he always came back for more.

ROBERT BRADLEY "Bob Tackle

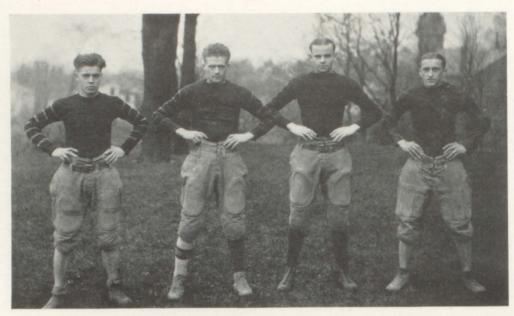

Bradley, of the famous Patterson and Bradley combination, was a great player when he "got going." The 1926 team will certainly be lucky to have this combination with it next season.

ELWYN VAN VALKENBURG "Van" Tackle

Van sure spread his stuff in the Niles game and continued to show the same old fight throughout the rest of the season. He will be another welcome addition to next year's squad.

JOHN HONEYWELL "Honey" Captain-elect Center

Johnny was the keynote of the team in more ways than one. He always opened his hole for the famous upstream play and was a bear on defense. The team has made a wise choice in electing him captain for the coming year and is depending on his leadership for another championship in 1926.

Robert Hopkins, Durwood Nelisse, Louis Hartman, George Seibert

ROBERT HOPKINS "Hoppy" Halfback

Bob was handicapped most of the season by wet fields, but managed to show his speed in the Garfield Heights and Rocky River games to good advantage. His was the important job of returning punts which he did in a very creditable manner. Bob was a fine blocker and noted for his fiery spirit.

DURWOOD NELISSE "Goodie" Quarterback

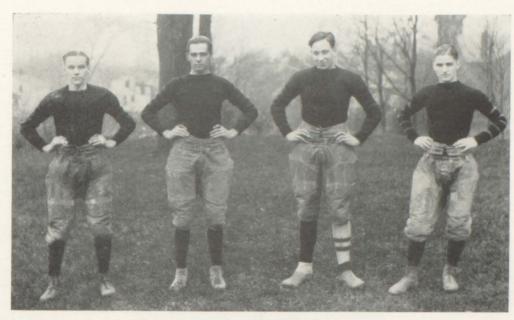

Goodie always had the knack of calling the right signal at the right time, and he barked them out with a snap and dash that lead the team to its second championship. He was especially good at reversing his field and in the Chardon game kept the crowd on edge with his long, zig-zag runs.

LOUIS HARTMAN "Louie" Fullback

Louie backed up the line in great style and was also the star forward passer and punter. A real triple threat fullback.

GEORGE SEIBERT Halfback

Seibert, "the mud horse," was small but mighty. He could always be depended on to sneak through the opponents' line for the needed yardage. He was exceptionally good at blocking and was a wizard at receiving passes.

Robert Milner, Ellwood Nelisse, Willard Patterson, Kendall Fellows

ROBERT MILNER "Squirt"

End

Bob was the lightest man on the team but had the most determination and after starting in as a sub soon proved his worth as a varsity player. Whenever a pile-up was cleared away, Squirt was always found at the bottom clinging to the ankles of the man with the ball.

WILLARD PATTERSON "Bill"

Tackle

Bill was the "Red Grange" of the team and filled his heart's supreme desire by scoring a touchdown in the Berea game. He will be back next year and is expected to show more of the gridiron ghost's methods.

ELLWOOD NELISSE "Bus"

End

Bus proved to be the bulwark of the defense on the right side of the line. His speed in getting down under punts was another invaluable asset to the team. His eighty-five yard touchdown run in the Niles game proved to be the big thrill of the day.

KENDALL FELLOWS "Kendy"

Halfback

Kendy, the midget of the squad, always gave a good account of himself whenever given the opportunity, and a weak heart and a repugnance for practice did not keep him from earning his seal. His great defensive play was his outstanding characteristic.

OWEN SCOTT "Scotty"

End

And we must not forget Scotty, the big smashing, crashing end who played in the first four games, and then transferred to another school. He was a wonder at diagnosing opponents' plays and was still better at breaking them up.

LOWELL REAM, Coach

The wiseacres who said that Chagrin had lost its best players and the remainder of its football championship hopes in the 1925 graduation didn't know at the time anything about a dark, slightly undersized individual from Wooster who was to become the athletic mentor for the Orange and Black in the following season and who was to smash said prophecy of said wiseacres all to blazes. For Coach Ream by sheer genius of coaching technique has molded a half-green team into another championship winner. But he has done more than that. By standing for hard fighting and clean play, Coach has instilled into the hearts of all his men a love, respect, and comradeship which can be forgotten by neither coach nor player.

THE SUBS

The success of a team depends upon the spirit of its subs, and enough cannot be said of the spirit shown by Bennett, Brewster, Kimmel, Kesco, Dickerson, Robinson, Payne and Lippert. The framework of next year's team will no doubt be constructed from these men, and if they display the same sort of fight that they did this season the team can be nothing but a success.

The Season

C. F. H. S. 0-ROCKY RIVER 0

The season opened at Rocky River with gratifying results to Coach Ream. Hopkins ran 95 yards for a touchdown through the whole River eleven in the third quarter but Fellows was called for holding on the play and the ball was brought back. Fullback Sears' great punting saved the day for the team that was to win its second Greater Cleveland Conference Championship.

C. F. H. S. 33—GARFIELD HEIGHTS 0

Garfield Heights proved to be a set-up for the Orange and Black in Chagrin's first county game, with Hopkins again breaking loose for long runs. Almost the whole of the last half was played in a heavy rain.

C. F. H. S. 26-PARMA 0

Another easy victory for the Chagrin eleven whose backs tore through the Parma line and around the ends for continual big gains. Bus Nelisse was the hero when a Parma lineman intercepted a pass and nearly scored a touchdown. Bus brought him down five yards from Chagrin's goal line after a 60 yard chase.

C. F. H. S. 7—NILES 28

Coach Ream's crew fought valiantly to surmount overwhelming odds, but in vain. Chagrin's only score came after E. Nelisse grabbed up a fumble and dashed 88 yards for a touchdown. Nervousness, a sloppy field and a great Niles backfield were big factors in Chagrin's defeat.

C. F. H. S. 6-WILLOUGHBY 0

Stern's great work on the line was too much for Willoughby's backs when they threatened to score. Three times they advanced to Chagrin's 5 yard line and each time Monk drove them back. It was the best game of the year.

C. F. H. S. 13—CHARDON 6

This game started off like another walk-away for Chagrin but Chardon stiffened up in the last half and put across a touchdown on straight football. D. Nelisse's open field running featured.

C. F. H. S. 6—DOVER 0

The victory in this game practically meant the championship for Chagrin and it was worth a championship to play on Dover's field that day. Mud, snow, slush and water made the going almost impossible but Chagrin got her just due of the breaks and Hartman's line plunges did the rest.

C. F. H. S. 12—BEREA 0

Another soggy field prevented the county champs from doing what they had hoped to Berea, but neverthelss they did enough, and for the second consecutive year, too.

C. F. H. S. 30-South Euclid 0

The scrubs started the season's finale and were not the least bit troubled in scoring a touchdown in the first quarter, and when the regulars got in the fun vanished entirely for South Euclid.

"A" TEAM

HAGRIN High's 1926 basketball season, although slightly more of a success than those of the past two or three years, still was far from spectacular, the team winning but three of its twelve games. However, Berea was one of those victims, which fact atoned for many defeats. Chagrin finished below Dover and Garfield Heights in the Cuyahoga county championship race with a percentage of 500, losing to Dover here in the game that would have formed a triple tie for the title had Chagrin won.

"B" TEAM

UE to lack of experience and team work, the class "B" squad had a very poor season. Some players were shifted to the first team at the middle of the season, which naturally weakened the squad and its morale. However, some consolation may be derived from the fact that the team showed a great improvement toward the close of the season and won two of its last three games by big margins.

The Seal Winners

ELLWOOD NELISSE, Captain and Guard

Bus, serving his third year as C. F. H. S. basketball captain, was a cool-headed defensive player at all times. His hard playing was an example to be followed by the rest of his men and his sterling leadership was the heart of the team. Points scored—6.

GEORGE SEIBERT, Forward

George was the dead shot of the team and whenever a few points were needed to win a game it was usually due to his brilliant shooting that they were registered. In the South Euclid and Alumni games he was nearly the "whole show." Points scored—78.

KENDALL FELLOWS, Forward

Kendy was George's running mate and "feeder." His big assets were his smooth floor work and team play. He made only a few points because he took only a few shots, but nevertheless was an invaluable player to the team. Points scored—7.

DURWOOD NELISSE, Center

Goody, our curly-headed center was one of the outstanding players of the team, his specialty being his accurate passing to the forwards. Goody, although a light scorer at the beginning of the season, came through beautifully at the critical moment, winning the Berea game for C. F. H. S. Points scored—32.

CHARLES REES, Guard

Fat's two years of basketball experience were of great benefit to the team, besides making him its most colorful player. He always managed to give the crowd plenty of laughs and a few thrills while holding up his end of the defense. Points scored—10.

ROBERT HOPKINS, Forward

Sore feet handicapped Hoppy and he was not used regularly all season, but played part of nearly every game. When he did get in his game was characterized by that same team spirit and hard fight which he exhibited on the football field. Points scored—15.

LOUIS HARTMAN, Forward and Center

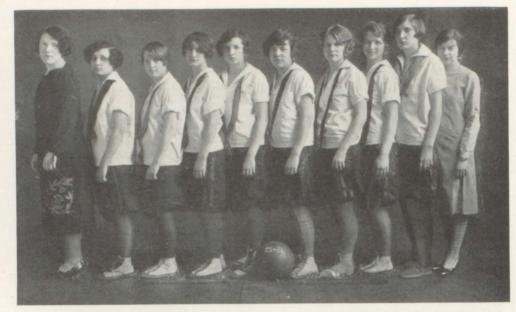

Although this was Louie's first year of basketball, he proved himself to be a very dependable varsity player. When Louie was playing center it took a darned good man to out-jump him. Points scored—5.

LOWELL REAM, Coach

Coach put the same inspiration into his basketball coaching that he did in his football work and it was due to him that Chagrin came within an ace of its first county basketball championship.

GLENN LIPPERT, Manager

The job of the basketball manager is one of the most difficult and probably the most thankless of any connected with the school, but Glenn filled the position to perfection. Nothing was lacking with him around.

Elizabeth Jenkins, Coach, Wilma Harper, Mabel Clarkson, Ada Cliff, Marie Spaller, Florence Haster, Betty Milner, Captain, Annette Church, Mildred Isaac, Margaret Mapes, Manager.

GIRLS' TEAM

Soon after school opened, Miss Jenkins, who had been selected as girls' basketball coach, issued a call for candidates. About twenty-five answered and after two months of practice the varsity team was selected. Soon after, Captain Milner lead her team into its first game which resulted in an overwhelming victory for the Chagrin lassies.

After this the season was one of alternate victory and defeat, but come what might, the Orange and Black was always on hand with plenty of punch. Much of the team's success was no doubt due to the fine coaching of Miss Jenkins and the capable leadership of Captain Milner.

Mildred Isaac's sparkling play throughout the season at jumping center won for her the captaincy of next year's squad. Here's wishing Mildred and her team a still more successful season next year.

CLEVELAND ATHLETIC CLUB MEET

The mile relay team of Robert Hopkins, Robert Stern, Durwood Nelisse and Elwood Nelisse was the only C. F. H. S. representative that placed in the first meet of the year, but this team certainly came through in great shape, taking first in the Class C mile event, and this after only a few days of erratic training. This meet was an indoor carnival held in Cleveland Public Hall.

OHIO RELAYS

This same mile relay team took third place in the state-wide Class C event in the Ohio Relays at Columbus a few weeks later.

LAKEWOOD RELAYS

The mile team ran a little under form in this meet but managed to take third place in the Class B mile nevertheless. However, the sprint medley team was the big noise for Chagrin,—"Bus" Nelisse running the final half mile lap in great form, finishing twenty yards ahead of his nearest rival. Claude Bennett, Robert Stern and Robert Hopkins were the other members of the team.

CHAGRIN-BEREA DUAL MEET

Chagrin had a fairly easy time against Berea in the first dual meet the Orange and Black ever entered, downing the ancient foes here 71 to 51. Chagrin took nine first, six second and six third places in rolling up its twenty-point lead. Berger of Berea was the high point scorer.

INTERCLASS MEET

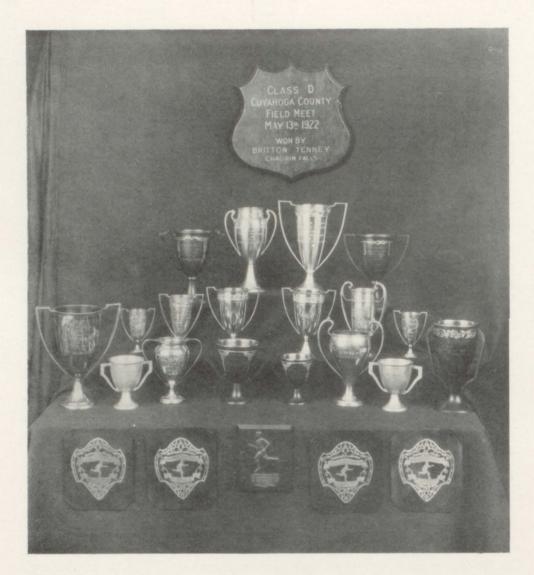

Taking eleven first, seven second, and two third places in fourteen events, the class of '26 won the interclass meet for the second consecutive year. The winners amassed a total of 78 points while the class of '25, which took second place, scored only 35 markers. "Bus" Nelisse won the high point-scorer's medal by winning the mile, half-mile and low-hurdle events, and placing second in the 440 yard dash.

COUNTY MEET

C. F. H. S. won the track championship of the county for the first time in its history at the 1925 annual track and field meet at Baldwin-Wallace field, Berea, taking first place in both senior and junior divisions. Berea was a close second in both sections, scoring 57 points to Chagrin's 59 in the senior division, and trailing the Orange and Black 30½ to 18½ in the junior events. Hopkins and E. Nelisse, both of Chagrin, tied for high point honors in the upper division with 10 points each, while Bennett, Chagrin's freshman flash, was the high point scorer of the meet with 18½ points to his credit in the lower section.

INTER-STATE SCHOLASTIC MEET

"Bus" Nelisse, Chagrin high's great middle-distance runner, reached the height of his athletic career at the Ohio State Inter-scholastic track and field meet at Columbus by winning the mile run in Class B and bringing the first state championship to C. F. H. S. "Bus" covered the distance in 4 minutes 46 2-5 seconds, finishing well ahead of a large field of entrants. The mile relay quartet took fourth place in its event and Hopkins placed sixth in the 440 yard dash.

A N ORGANIZATION of the student body for self-government has been formed, composed of representatives elected from each class. This body has its own officers—Louis Hartman, president; Andrew Juras, vice-president; Florence Haster, secretary, and functions as an executive committee for the four classes. The council acts as the agent of the student body, conferring with the faculty and making recommendations to the body; it considers matters referred to it by the faculty members, and occupies a position of leadership in student activities.

The main object of this newly organized body is to regulate all matters pertaining to the student life of C. F. H. S.; to promote in every way the spirit of unity among the students of the school; to increase their sense of responsibility toward each other; and to be a medium by which the social standing of the school can be kept high.

This group of eager workers plunged into the question—"Resolved that Ohio Should Establish a State Constabulary"—studied it thoroughly, and every Tuesday morning gave short talks on its various angles. After extended try-outs two teams were picked, one veteran debater serving as a nucleus for each.

Both the teams and the club wish to thank Miss Weidemann for her untiring help and encouragement throughout the season.

This team worked heartily and on December 4, 1925, proved itself to be ready for anything by winning a unanimous decision over Rocky River, each speaker taking one first place.

A week later the team again did its best but met its superior in Dover, losing 3 to 0. This defeat eliminated both Chagrin teams from further debating as at least one judge's decision was needed to stay in the running with Dover and Berea.

When this team went to Rocky River for its first debate it was fortified with every known argument against a state constabulary. It used them, too, taking two decisions and two first places.

Berea was the opponent in the second argument, and Chagrin's negatives were again in fine debating spirit, winning its second 2 to 1 victory.

HE sixteenth volume of the "Zenith," the yearbook of the Senior Class of 1926, contains a number of changes, all of which we think are for the good of the annual. The most important of these are the colored border, the two-color cover, the panelling of faculty portraits and a general uniformity and congruence in the lay-out of the book gained by a regular size and arrangement of half tones and cartoons and by the use, at the beginning of each section, of a special division page half tone.

The staff would have wished to adopt still further improvements, but owing to the usual limitation of funds was necessarily confined to certain bounds. The staff is very grateful to its faculty advisor, Miss Weidmann, for her careful advice on many matters.

WO years ago the editor of the Chagrin Falls Exponent kindly consented to devote in his paper each week as much of a full page as could be filled, to news from the high school. This proposition was readily taken up and now the students of C. F. H. S. have in this school page an instrument of expression which serves very adequately all their needs and has a much larger circulation than any ordinary school paper.

This year meetings of the staff were held every Monday morning where articles were assigned and the page planned. The staff has worked diligently in trying to make the school page more than satisfactory to the student body and has in a great measure been successful.

Orchestra

HE orchestra this year suffered considerably for lack of good players and as a result failed to measure up to the ability of some former C. F. H. S. orchestras. But, although many of the musicians were inexperienced, they were young and faithful and worked hard under Mrs. Fouts' baton, finally developing into a well trained group which played creditably if not artistically.

Four of the orchestra's seasoned players will graduate this June, leaving a big gap in the ranks so that the cry now is for more players. Violinists are especially needed, but all good instrumentalists will be gladly welcomed next fall.

The orchestra furnished music at county debates, chapel exercises,

Russell Farmers' Institute, operetta, May concert, Senior play and several commencement exercises.

The membership for 1925-26 included the following players:

Conductor-Mrs. Zoe Long Fouts

First Violins

Allen Tenny, student director, Myrtle Matthews, librarian.

Second Violins

Elwyn Gore, Goldie Brisky.

Boy's Glee Club

HE Boys' Glee Club started off in the year 1925 at a considerable disadvantage, most of the actor-singers having graduated, leaving presumably no one fully qualified to fill their places.

However, a number of Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and a few Freshmen stepped forward and, under the efficient direction of Mrs. Fouts, soon developed into a chorus of real quality.

The popularity of the Boys' Glee Club was evinced by the number of places in which it was asked to sing. The club lent its voices at Debate, chapel exercises, Parent-Teacher Association meeting, Russell Farmers' Institute, and the May concert, besides appearing as usual with the Girls' Glee and orchestra in presenting the operetta "Hulda of Holland" which proved to be another of Mrs. Fouts' well-earned successes.

Girls' Glee Club

HE 1925-26 Girls' Glee Club was the largest that C. F. H. S. has ever had. Forty-one members worked under the conductorship of Mrs. Fouts with a fine co-operative spirit and achieved very satisfying results.

The club participated in several events including the Christmas chapel, operetta, May concert and commencement.

The members feel that they have had a very successful season, but willingly attribute that success to Mrs. Fouts.

Scenery by Archie Lauter and Everette Blair Costumes by Gertrude Huchinson Lighting by Lawrence Payne and William Brewster Dances by Harley Fenton Dialogue by Mildred Wheatcraft

"When it's tulip time in Holland"—but it was very much tulip time in Chagrin Falls when Mrs. Fouts with her glee clubs and orchestra presented this delightful operetta. Dorothy Trippeer, the star of last year's "Crimson Eyebrows" was again the leading lady and was perhaps even more fascinating than ever before. She took the part of the sophisticated little Dutch maid, Hulda, forming a great contrast to her middle-aged and thoroughly Dutch parents, Peter and Vrouw Cats. These two parts were very commendably played by Charles Rees and Annette Church respectively. Their song and dance, "Fuel on the Fire," was the "hit of the show."

Robert Milner was a pleasing Jerry Heyden, Hulda's supposed American sweetheart, whom she had met in France. Kendall Fellows as Jan Steen, who had been betrothed to Hulda in her infancy, furnished most of the play's humor with his innocent and hopeless, yet hilariously funny and effeminate impersonation of an "artistic temperament," besides getting Jerry in "dutch" after he had agreed to change names with him so that Jerry could marry Hulda in spite of the old marriage agreement.

However, the wedding chimes ring merrily in the end for a double wedding, as Jimmy Stone and Katrina Hoogenbeets, Jerry's and Hulda's best friends respectively, are also to be married, and the spirit of festive happiness reigns supreme in the land of the windmills.

HE Chagrin Falls Hi-Y Club continues to hold its place in our high school as an inspiring organization for young men. Its high ideals are respected by the students and it is considered an honor to be recognized as a member. Its work for young men is parallel to that of the Friendship Club for girls.

This year we lost our energetic leader, Rev. Wood, who since the organization of the club has been its chief guiding spirit. We will be able to repay our indebtedness to Rev. Wood, and show our appreciation for his services only by living up to the high ideals of the club and the principles of the school. The club also owes much to Mr. Bogaske, who has assumed temporary leadership. Our appreciation for his kind and faithful services is unlimited.

URING the year of 1925-26 we have tried to put into our program those things which prove our purpose. We have tried to show our spirit of sociability and service at all times.

Through the help of the Inner Circle we have been able to co-operate with the Hi-Y Club which was splendidly shown at our Chapel meetings. We have also enjoyed affiliation with the Auburn Friendship Club, which is a new organization.

We believe that all the girls who belonged to our Club must have derived some good from it through our discussions, speakers, or contest. We have made "Loyalty" our theme and, applied it to the things for which our triangle stands—"Spirit, Knowledge, and Health."

All the girls have co-operated in our meetings, work and entertainments and, with the good advice and supervision of Miss Harlowe, our Y. W. C. A. secretary, and Miss Hanna, our advisor, we believe that we have in some measure achieved our goal toward success in elevating the standard of Christian citizenship.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER TEA October 3, 1925

Miss Harlow addressed the club members and their guests at the annual Mother and Daughter Tea held October 3, in the Assembly Hall. The occasion proved a successful opening of a new year of activities for our Friendship Club.

FOOTBALL RALLY November 6, 1925

The first football rally of the season was held November 6, under the auspices of the Friendship Club. Brief speeches were given by all football men who found it impossible to escape. Captain Rees and Kendall Fellows cleverly entertained the crowd with an act of vaudeville. Miss Gifford attended as chaperone.

TWO PENNY DANCE October 19, 1925

Mabel Dickerson's Jazz Orchestra furnished the music for the two penny dance on October 19.

Coach Ream was very obliging in excusing the football men from practice, and therefore the dance proved to be a greater success than those of last year.

FOOTBALL RALLY November 25, 1925

"The 'Farewell Football-Welcome Basketball' rally of 1925 was a sure enough knockout," states the student body.

All speeches were written before hand and were skillfully delivered by the senior boys and Coach Ream. Senior girls gave a one act play entitled, "Wanted a Wife," starring Betty Milner.

The sophomores gave an effective stunt involving a serious operation. Of course we know it was just a play.

The freshmen girls' band played some music in a minor key and everyone wept.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. We noticed that Ream does not yet dance the Charleston.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET

December 3, 1925

The Father and Son banquet was held in the Disciple Church on the evening of December 3, sponsored by the senior class. Mr. Teachout, vice-president of the Teachout Lumber Company of Cleveland, was the speaker and delivered a very appropriate address to the gentlemen present.

The senior girls made excellent waitresses and even Mr. Stoneburner agreed that the banquet was a success.

SENIOR SLEIGH RIDE

January 27, 1926

Dorothy Trippeer invited the seniors to her home after the sleigh ride on January 27. On the following morning all the contestants in the New York Charleston contest showed the effect of the previous night to such an extent that Coach Ream remarked about it in history class.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL BANQUET

March 12, 1926

The girls of Chagrin High who played during the basketball season of '25 and '26 celebrated for the last time as a group at a banquet held at the Green Tea Pot tea-room on March 12.

Toasts were given by Wilma Harper, Marie Spaller, Mildred Isaac and Mary Thomas. Betty Milner acted as toast mistress.

SUGAR HIKE March 25, 1926

The school held its annual sugar hike Thursday, March 25. The weather wasn't the best, in fact a chilling wind was much in evidence, and the sun remained in retirement for the week. However, a large number of hikers turned out in most unique costumes.

The baseball game was an interesting feature of the afternoon. Sir William Dwight Brewster served as umpire in a most remarkable fashion. He got so he could call an out and drop his monocle with same motion. It is believed that 75 per cent of the hikers still owe Mr. Stoneburner two-bits each.

DANCE April 3, 1926

After the operetta Saturday, April 3, the Semi-Diblas, the senior class orchestra, gave a dance at the Harris Hall. The music was "peachy"—according to remarks such as these which were current throughout the dancing period:

"The best music I ever heard!"

"Isn't the music snappy?"

"Well, what do you think of this music?"

We are sure that this orchestra made everyone enjoy the dance. The scandal club members say, "Did you see 'Sev' Kent at the dance with Payney?" Yes, it's true; ask them.

Me Dedicate this, the first volume of the PILOT,

to:

He who spreads, both thick and thin,

That which tries to make us grin.

He who with touch of tender blade

Makes all our sorrows quickly fade.

He who gladdens every hovel, He whom all adore — the shovel.

In Memoriam

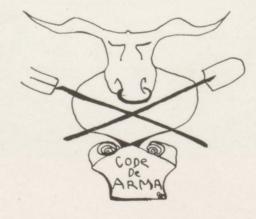

This assemblage of conundrums, created in the tortuous caverns of an insane brain, fermented in the blankness of blissful idiocy, and robbed of all semblance to normality—merely the residue of a deteriorated mind, has been collected out of respect for the memory of the Spanish toreador, that brave, lusty exponent of the greatest sport ever invented by the genius of mankind.

Hard Times at the Arkademy

Time-Can't tell.

Occasion—Last meeting of the class of 93 B. C. of the Royal Arkademy.

Enter Noah, dean of the arkademy, bearing a portion of rock on which is inscribed the word diploma.

"Brethren," spake Noah, "on bended knee I once more implore thee to inscribe thy honoured names upon this aged and fast decaying diplomy."

"Ah, it is a dubious question," uttered the sage class president as he chiseled away on his already sadly mutilated desk. "Call in the Slab of Directors." (In the Stone age they had no Boards).

Enter aforesaid slab. It drapes itself carelessly around the various chairs and places its pedal extremities on the precious table.

"Well, by the Gods of the Cuspidor, gentlemen," interrogated the honourable president, "shall we perpetuate our names upon this holy document"

"Aye, aye," coughed the Directory, "but just one moment, Noah! If you are permissibly enabled by the Goddess of the Seven Pills to answer one question correctly, your wish shall be granted then and then only."

Noah-"Ah, gentlemen! Verily wilt I try."

D.—"Verily wilt then. How many hairs are in thy hoary head?"

At this point Noah grows pale, but answers vaguely, "827364596876."

D.—"How knowest thou?"

Noah—"Careful calculation, sir. And if thou believest me not, then count them thyself."

D.—"Nay, nay, 'tis not necessary. Thy plea is answered."

At this point the Directory pulls out an electric drill from his drapery and says: "Gentlemen, Modern Methods if any. Ask the man who owns one."

Noah-"Yea and verily. Amen."

"The Pilot"

The Evolution of Coach Cream's Features

Coach in his infancy. (Note the look of supreme ignorance.)

Coach in his strenuous youth. (Curvature of the brain denotes muscle-bound condition from the ears up.)

Coach at age of seventeen. (He thinks he's a skiek.)

Coach as we saw him in September. (Mark the worried expression.)

Coach with decorations. (We always wondered where a hair went when it got lost if it didn't get in the butter. Now we know.)

Allslop's Fable

One day a long, long time ago when Iklypoo was just a little boy, he was walking along a grassy lane when suddenly he halted, having perceived a pole-cat approaching from the immediate front.

"Ahhhaa!" quoth he, "'pon my word 'tis a polish kitten. What ho, cat! I got wind of you as you encircled the corner."

"Hey, which! Sayest thee thou gottest wind of me?"

"A very strongish wind. In fact a very toronado of halitosis."

"Well," stenched the pole, "my odor is unperfumious, I admit. But pray listen to me, see you you rainbow? Follow it to its termination and there wilt thou discover a vessel of precious gold. Hearest thou me?"

"Yea and merrily," breathed Iklypoo as he hastened away. He soon arrived at the bow of rain and there was the gold———gone.

"Aaahhhooo," fumed Iklypoo. "Infernal horsecollar! By the biped's adenoids, I have been foiled! This has taught me a lesson."

MORAL: Don't believe everything you get wind of.

You Are a Capitalist

Did you ever stop to think of that?

The word "capitalist" refers to one who has wealth.

Wealth does not always refer to money or to worldly goods.

Good health is wealth and so also is a sound mind.

Good health and keen intellect are sometimes more valuable than gold.

If you have good health and a workable brain you are a capitalist.

A capitalist mixes good health and brains to accumulate material wealth.

Are you using your capital for this purpose?

The staunch oak grows from the tiny acorn.

From small beginnings great fortunes have grown^a

This bank has watched with keen interest the efforts of a great many people who have used their capital. Will you let our experience be of service to you?

Fat Rees to Red Stoneman chasing a female down the main street of Middletown, Ohio: "Say, Red, some chicken you're chasing."

Red: "Chicken nothing—two white calves."

Zat: "Say, guy, how'd you get bit? Monkeyin' around a horse?" So: "No, horsein' around a monkey."

George Seibert (gazing disgustedly at a cup of coffee): "Criminently fellows, I got gyped. My cup only held four saucers full."

"Ah," breathed he passionately, "tonite makes me feel like Hamlet and Juliette."

OWED TO MY FRENCH

(With apologies to Cowper)

The second year is well nigh past, Since first my mind was overcast; Ah, would that this might be my last!

My French!

Thy verbs: They have a fainter flow,

I see them daily weaker grow;'Twas my test grade that they brought low;

My French!

Alas! By constant heed I know
How oft the ignorance that I show
Transforms my A's to E's and woe;
My French!

Behner smiled at me one day,
And said I knew my stuff.
It made my little heart leap high
To know that I could bluff.
He thought I was his angel,
When it came to technical stuff.
But oh! How I had fooled him;
I had formulas on my cuff!

Convict Number 23456 will now render his favorite ballad entitled: "Rocks-a-Bye My Baby Blues" or, "The Bars and Stripes Forever."

"Is that cake good?"
"Well, it was."
