COMPOSED

By The Zenith Staff

THE staff of the Zenith is composed of young men and young women of varied talents, the combined efforts of whom are incorporated in this book. These men and women are known to many, but for the benefit of those who do not know them, we will introduce the composers.

The girl with the far-away look in her eyes is Ann Channing Wrentmore, our Editor of the Calendar. Her companion, with the hang-dog expression, is John Montrose Fisher (better known as "Monty"), who has followed his second favorite pastime, sports. Walter Ettinger, looking comfortable minus his coat, seems to be doing his best to avoid the glance of his direct superior, Louis Black, sitting back there trying to stare down the photographer. Possibly this staring is due to Lou's job, Editor of Photography. Standing between them is Donald Jones, who, despite the solemn face, is in charge of Humor. Standing next to Don is The Editor, directly followed by Mr. Gurney, the faculty advisor, who seems rather squeezed in by James Vernon Class, Jr., Assistant Editor. Next comes Peter John Clemens, Jr., Art Editor, looking rather scared. Possibly that is due to the frown on the face of Harold (Archy) Shanower, seated in front of him. We do not know the cause of Archy's frown, but possibly is because his boss, Hilda Cathan, Business Manager, has just bawled him out. She has ample chance, as she is seated right in front of him. Way back in the corner is Phillip Cohn, typist, followed by his co-workers, Itha Mae Richardson, Margaret Jefferson and Thelma Scott.

All these people have combined their efforts in this book. We hope you like it!

LEWIS SANDS
Superintendent

THIS foreword is an expression of appreciation by the School Administration of the large service the 1938 Staff of the Zenith has rendered the School through the publication of this excellent Annual. Not only is the volume attractive in appearance, but it faithfully and fully portrays the various activities and interests of the School.

We desire, therefore, to express to the Staff our indebtedness, and to all readers of this volume our cordial greetings.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

“Ad astra per aspera.” The Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-Nine has certainly lived up to its motto. In athletics, scholarship, music, Girl Reserves, and Hi-Y, the juniors have come to the front often.

We were honored to have Miss Nunvar and Miss Landrum for our faculty advisors this year. Near the beginning of the year the class held elections. The officers are: president, Wallace Hileman; vice-president, Robert Jackson; secretary, Margie Stoneman; treasurer, Donald Kraushaar.

The class gave its annual play, which we hope everyone enjoyed. The class also paid its best tribute to the seniors in the form of a banquet and prom. We sincerely hope that our class will be able to carry on the high standards set by the seniors.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

SINCE any history is but a past record of the facts concerning the subject being considered, the best and most complete history of the Class of 1940 can be found in the records of our school. This record shows that the membership of the Sophomore Class is nearly the same as it was ten years ago when we first started our school careers; that we have moved forward as a group, contributing generously to all activities, including athletics, music, and various school organizations.

Miss Haynam and Miss Landrum, our present homeroom teachers, and all preceding instructors who have directed us in our school work, have each added something to our lives which has helped toward building character, and we hope we have left something with them which has or will help them in their work.

Our hope and aim is that we may go forward together not seeking individual glory but rather greater honors for our school.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

WE started our school life in the first grade under the guidance of Miss Pugsley and Mrs. Maiden. As we progressed we lost some of our old members, but picked up new ones on the way.

As freshmen we are now able to participate in activities such as Glee Clubs and high school athletics. We are also officially organized for the first time.

The class has always been talented in many fields, but this is the first time we have been really able to show our ability. Listen to the Glee Clubs and the orchestra, read the school news, or watch a game of football or basketball. You will find freshman talent there.

We are getting our first tastes of algebra, Latin, commercial arithmetic, and general science this year, but we believe we are doing quite well in mastering our new subjects.

Ruth Matthews, William Sargent, Dorothy Matthews, and Oliver Young were welcomed into the Class of '41 this year.

EIGHTH GRADE CLASS HISTORY

IN the fall of 1936 we entered Junior High School feeling rather timid and shy. Now that we are in our second year, we have more confidence in ourselves. The sixty-four of us eighth graders were happy to welcome seven new members this year. They are: Elsienor Hopkins, Margaret Fiehl, June Matthews, Dick Mitchell, Ray Terry, Irving Hissom and Billy Larkworthy. Billy was in school with us until the fourth grade. Then he moved away, but we are glad to have him back again.

The eighth grade went in for baseball this year and as a result won the Junior High Championship but lost the championship of the school to the seniors, after playing four hard-fought games. We also have a basketball team, under the direction of Mr. DePaola, but as this goes to press our team is still in its infancy. We are active in other extra-curricular activities such as orchestra and Echo. All this should prove that the eighth grade is establishing a standard worthy of the Chagrin Falls High School.

SEVENTH GRADE CLASS HISTORY

HERE we are in the seventh grade. We'll have to start all over again as we did in the first grade. Our homeroom teachers are Mr. Kearney and Miss Burdick. At first we became a little mixed up in trying to adjust ourselves to the new schedule. Then came the semester test. It was new to us and we were a little afraid of it. Now we are looking forward to the yearly test. We are also looking forward to five more profitable and happy years.

Stoneman, Springer, Richardson, Wrentmore, Duffey, Hodgson, Kent, Gore, Richards, Foster, Arnold.

BREAKING all precedent, the Girls' Glee Club this year admitted ninth grade girls as members. This addition increased the size of the organization to over forty.

During the year the club helped furnish the Christmas entertainment for P.-T.A., sang at the Warrensville Tubercular Farm, at the May Concert, and Commencement. The operetta, "Hollywood Bound," was the climax of the year. It was colorful, entertaining and memorable. The seniors leave, after three years of active participation, saying: "Here's to bigger and better Girls' Glee Clubs."

THE Boys' Glee Club of Chagrin Falls High School, under the direction of Mrs. Fouts, can report another successful year. This year there are twenty members in the club.

As usual the glee club sang at several different occasions, and in March it collaborated with the Girls' Glee Club to produce the operetta "Hollywood Bound."

When the club met the first week of school last fall, it elected the following officers to guide the club this year:

Harold Shanower	President
Donald Jones	Secretary-Treasurer
Peter Clemens	Librarian
Walter Ettinger	Librarian

SIXTEEN years ago Miss Hanna organized the Girl Reserve Club in Chagrin Falls. Since that time it has grown at such a rate that now, due to the club's democratic spirit, it holds the place of the largest organization in our school.

The club tries to perform during the year as many acts of service and friendship as possible. Some of the outstanding social events were: Capsule Sister Week, Mother-Daughter Banquet, Father-Daughter Breakfast, and Stunt Nights. These, and numerous other interesting meetings, constituted the program for 1937-1938.

Much of the club's success depends upon the able assistance of our faculty advisors, Miss Schlegel and Miss Haynam.

THE Hi-Y Club, in the sixteenth year of its existence, is one of the best examples of the basic principles of the Young Men's Christian Association. The purpose of the club is "To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character." The chief interests of the club lie in promoting better feeling and sociability in the boys of the school.

Early in the fall the new members were received into the club by initiations both formal and informal. It is a general opinion among the old members that both ceremonies were impressive.

In January the new officers took the reins. Those retiring were: Peter Clemens, Donald Jones, Harold Shanower and James Class.

As in previous years the Hi-Y Sweetheart Banquet proved to be a great success.

A great deal of the success of the club this year, as in former years, was due to the capability of our faculty advisor, Mr. Kearney.

THE Chagrin Falls High School Orchestra was organized for the school year 1937-38 under the direction of Mrs. Fouts and Mr. Freeman. It has had a very successful season, giving performances at the school plays, operetta, May Concert, and a few P.-T.A. Meetings.

Two members of the orchestra will graduate with this year's graduating class. They are Ann Wrentmore and Peter Clemens.

THE band is a young organization, but it is steadily growing. It is composed mostly of younger students, some of them still in elementary school. However, under the capable direction of Mr. Freeman, it is progressing in rapid strides. This year the band played in the Independence Day parade, The Decoration Day parade, at several football games, and gave several concerts. This year, for the first time, the band started complicated marching and the formation of figures.

ECHO STAFF

Top Row: R. Stoneman, McRitchie, Wass, Hahn, Maiden, Greed, G. Stoneman, Tribbel, Enslin. Second Row: Miss Burdick, Duffey, M. THE ECHO, which is the school newspaper, was under the supervision of Miss Marjorie Burdick, and was edited by Ann Wrentmore. It has been the object of the entire staff to publish a paper that presented information which would be of interest not only to the students and faculty members, but also to the general public.

The staff wishes to thank Mr. W. R. Bailey for his cooperation in printing The Echo in the Chagrin Falls Exponent.

G. A. A.

Standing: Yunkes, Eldridge, Miss Landrum, Imars, Lund. Seated: Russell, Ditmer, Shelton.

THE G. A. A. met early in the school year to elect new officers. At this meeting a system of points was established, whereby the girls could get seals when they had earned the required number of points by participating in volleyball, basketball, track and other various sports.

During the volleyball season we had the pleasure of being hostesses to the Hudson High School girls. After this game a chili supper was enjoyed by both teams.

One of the most interesting points in our club is the hikes which we take. Almost every Tuesday night in the spring and fall the girls may be seen trooping along the highways or tramping in the woods.

We, the girls of the G.A.A., feel that we have established a club in which every girl can actively participate if she wishes.

OPERETTA

"HOLLYWOOD BOUND," an operetta in three acts, was presented on March 28 and 29, 1938, by the glee clubs and orchestra under the super direction of Mrs. Fouts.

This operetta, which was written by Edward Bradley with music by Don Wilson, proved most apropos for the school's musical talent. Mr. Baker and Mr. DePaola contributed much to the excellence of the production.

The story illustrates the haphazard workings of the film industry, centering around the attempts of Bob Kent, a young inventor, to promote a new color process, which he calls "Vericolor." The young man's demonstration to show the practicability of Vericolor fails due to sabotage. Nevertheless, with the help of Windy Bryan, his song-writer pal, and Marcia (daughter of Mr. Norton, to whom he is trying to sell the invention), Bob manages to overcome the many obstacles.

At the conclusion of the operetta one's imagination may well develop the chronic sound of wedding bells in the immediate future.

"And so they lived happily ever after."

SENIOR PLAY

HIGHLY seasoned in human appeal, abundant in humorous pathos, extravagant in mirth—such was “Growing Pains” as presented on December 9, 1938, by the Senior Class.

The story is entirely absorbing, throwing light on turbulent and egocentric youth. It tells of the dilemma of the McIntyres in rearing their adolescent boy and girl.

All those smug adults who witnessed this comedy emerged with a greater degree of understanding and tolerance toward children. Truly this was an illuminating drama of real human beings.

JUNIOR PLAY

“SPRING FEVER,” a farce in three acts, was successfully presented on Friday, May 13, by the Junior Class of 1938.

The plot revolves around the activities at Brookfield, a small co-educational college in the East, on the day before commencement.

This production was fast and furious—with loud explosions every now and then from Ed’s “stinkum stinktorium.”

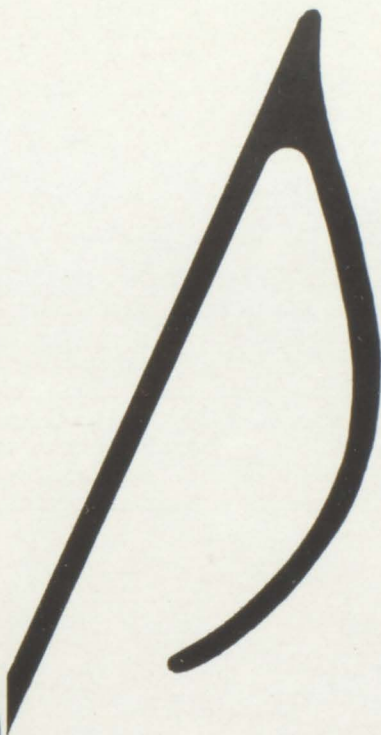

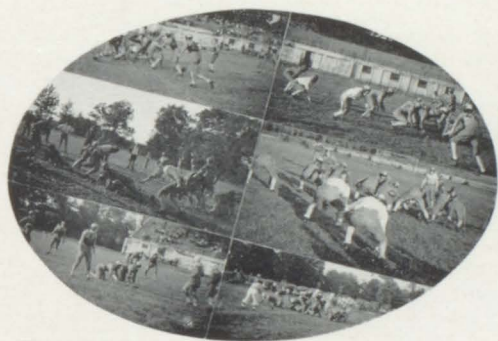

When higher degrees of fever are made, the Juniors will be responsible. The instigator of this particular fever was none other than our able and enthusiastic Miss Eleanor Nunvar.

ATHLETIC BOARD

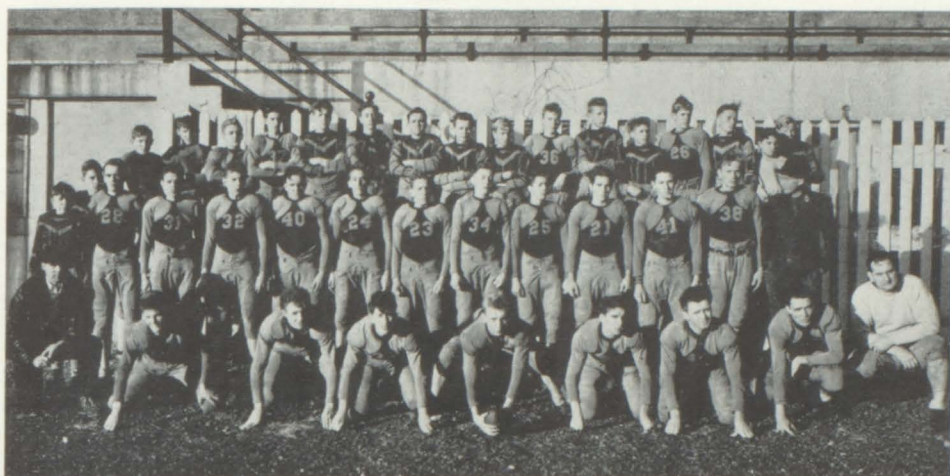

Mr. Baker, Mr. Gurney, Mr. Sands, Benbow, Eloff.

THE Chagrin Falls Athletic Association this year was composed of Mr. Sands, Mr. Baker, Mr. Gurney, and two student representatives elected by popular vote, John Benbow and Andy Eloff.

Following the purchase of much new football and basketball equipment, the board owed debts to several firms at the beginning of school. A Hallowe'en Carnival and several dances were sponsored by the board to raise funds to finance athletics, so at the close of school it was free from debts. This is strong evidence that much has been accomplished by the Athletic Association this year.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

SUBSTITUTES

THE substitutes are the boys who really have the "dog's job." They go out for football, often with high hopes; they get all the sweat-sodden, sticky, itching sawdust, the mud, sore muscles, cold fingers, and bruises that go with that practice, and when the game days roll around they climb into their suits and go to the field, only to sit on the bench, with frustrated hopes, and watch the other fellows play.

Despite this, they are the real backbone of the team, and without them the game could not go on.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

Standing: Shelton, Langstaff, Rosengreen, Batchelor, Fosdick, Clemens, Edwards, Sindelar, Coach Gurney. First Row: Sprague, Fast, Jones, Kraushaar, Fisher, Lund, Bradley, Law.

SUBSTITUTES

Although we did not have a very successful season, there was much accomplished. The team played fine ball and showed a great deal of fight. To the boys who had to sit on the bench much of this credit is due. The substitutes have to come up every night for practice. They are as much of the squad as any other player. When next season rolls around, these are the boys that the team will be built of.

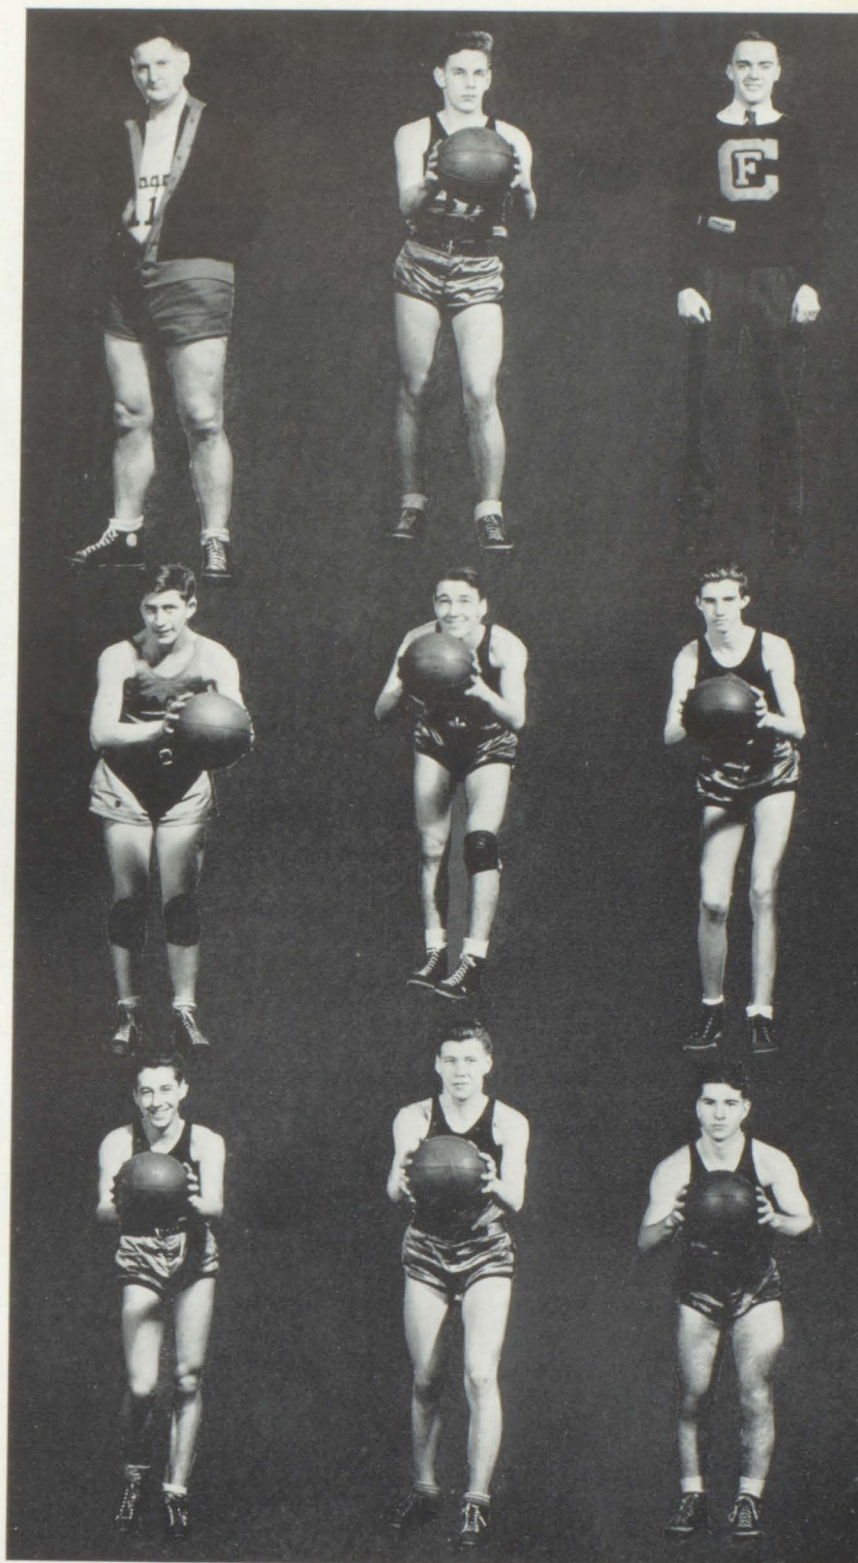

"B" TEAM

The "B" team went through the year losing only to Orange, Independence and Brecksville. As these boys are the basis of next year's team, we can look forward to their play.

JUNIOR HIGH

Under the able coaching of Mr. De Paola, the junior high turned out a fine basketball team. About twenty boys were on the squad and played throughout the year. The best among this group, those who made up the starting team, were: Jim Kraushaar, Glenn Snyder, John Kenning, Spike Rake, Evan Hensley and Dick Mitchell. The team finished the year with a record of 4 wins and 4 defeats.

B A S K E T B A L L

FOOTBALL MEN

JOHN BRADLEY

Though only a freshman, Johnny made his letter. He played end, and did remarkably well. With three years to go, it's hard to predict what he'll do.

WILLIAM SHELTON

Billy played regular halfback all year. He is the type of player you can always count on.

GEORGE SINDELAR

This was George's first year. He played a good deal of the time at quarterback, which is quite some job. With three years to go, watch his smoke.

STANLEY LAW

The lightest man on the team, but probably the scrappiest. What he didn't have in weight he had in spirit. Watch him go next year.

COACH DePAOLA

"A. C.," as he is affectionately known, came to us this year from college. He gave us much help, and we all wish to thank him. To those who are coming on he will give lots of valuable information.

ROGER PORTER

Roger was the senior manager. His duty was to look after the equipment. Though not a job of great glory, it consists of much work. Throughout the year his job could always be counted on as done.

WALLACE HILEMAN

Wally started at fullback, but soon found that he liked the line better. When he started to go, there was no stopping him.

WARREN SAWYER

He's here and then there. "The fastest boy on the team" is this boy's record. During the latter part of the season he got a bad injury, but that isn't going to keep him down.

JACK LUND

Jack is new to us, but soon found a place in our hearts. His quick darts through the line were the feature of many a game.

TOM STANTON

After the first of the year, Tommy played regularly. Though only a freshman, he played as well as any other lineman. With three more years, great things are sure to come.

ROBERT BAGLEY

Bob was the beefiest man on the line. He used this weight to good advantage blocking up holes. When he got in there they usually were blocked.

MELVIN GIFFORD

"Melly's" last year was probably his best. His specialty was bursting through the line and downing the ball carrier. He plans to enter "State," so watch out, "Big Ten."

MONTY FISHER

Monty was one of the three boys who earned their third letter. Although hampered by injuries, he played hard, consistent ball all through the season.

KENNETH SHUTTS

This was Kenny's first year out for football. He played quarterback, which is quite a job—even for someone who has experience. But in spite of his handicap he really did a good bit of work.

PETER CLEMENS

This was Pete's second year on the varsity. He showed a fine brand of fighting spirit all year. Next year's team is going to miss him.

COACH GURNEY

Coach has to take all the blame for our losses, but he gets none of the glory for our wins. Though not so successful as in past years, he still had his team fighting in their best spirit.

ANDY ELOFF

"Pinkey" was probably the hardest tackler on the team. More than one opponent has left the game after being grounded by his hard tackles. A fine leader and player, he was elected honorary captain.

WALTER ETTINGER

Walter is the type of boy coaches want. He will play any place the coach puts him, and he will try hard. Though this was his first year on the varsity, he certainly played fine ball.

ROBERT SCOTT

Bob played guard and did a swell job. Though green during the first part of the year, he soon was one of the top-notch linemen.

DONALD JONES

Don played hard ball all year. He always was on the go, and his aggressive spirit carried him far.

JOE JOHNSON

Catcher of passes extraordinary, Joe scored more points than anyone else on the team. His fine playing should be a great help to next year's team.

JOHNNY BENBOW

Our triple threat flash ran, kicked, and passed. All of these he did well. He was a constant thorn in the enemies' side. Watch him go next year! He was elected captain of next year's team.

BASKETBALL MEN

COACH GURNEY

This year's team did not fare so well as teams in the past, but all the time Coach was behind us giving all he had. We all regret that we shall not have a chance to work under him again. To him we wish the best of luck.

HILEMAN

Wally was general utility man. He played every position and played them all well. He will be a great help to next year's team.

ETTINGER

Waldo was the team's doctor, lawyer, and chief cook. He had under him the rest of the managers who did very good work. A fine manager and great fellow.

LAW

Stan played very hard ball all year. His coolness and pep make him a splendid leader. At the end of the season he was elected next year's captain.

JOHNSON

Joe was runner-up in the scoring honors. His long shots were the spectacle of many games. A fine player and a valuable asset to the coming teams.

SMITH

Hank is our elongated center. He was a steady player throughout the season. With another year to go he will turn into a fine star.

SHUTTS

Kenny was the team's leading scorer. He was one of the best shots on the team. This was his last year, and in reward for his excellent play he was elected honorary captain.

HELBERG

Sticky played guard and center. His long, swishing shots brought many a crowd to its feet. With one more year watch him go.

BENBOW

Although Johnny did not do much shooting, he did serve his team as a stalwart guard.

TRACK—SEASON 1937

CHAGRIN had a fine track team this year. The team finished third in the Cuyahoga County track meet. The mile relay team was outstanding—they never finished below second place all year. Joe Johnson and J. Reeves were outstanding in the distances. Dick Davis and Walter Ettinger proved to be fine 440 men. The other letter men were Shriver, Sawyer, Fisher, Shutts, Shelton, Marty and Batchelor.

Senior Class Will

WE, the Senior Class, in this year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, in complete possession of the faculty, do hereby decree this to be our last will and testament.

Article I

To the Jactant, jesting, jovial, jiffing, jeering, jostling, jubilant, joking, jolly, but jealous juniors we will and bequeath our ability to attain high scholastic ratings, our athletic prowess, and our faithful trust in the human race. (Including school teachers, with restrictions.)

Article II

To the simpering, squeamish, sleepy, shrewish, sagacious, scatter-brained, sermonic, shocking, and slapdash sophomores, we will and bequeath our instinctive method of pacifying the teachers. This method is guaranteed to work within three years or it may be returned to the alumni.

Article III

To the fair-haired, facetious, faithless, fallacious, feeble-minded, fatuous, fiendish, flirtatious, felonious, and fickle freshmen we will and bequeath our ability to become great physicists, mathematicians, chemists, businesss men, economists, biologists, bookkeepers, typists, Frenchmen, Latins, and what have you.

Article IV

To the much feared, fearless faculty we will and bequeath anything we have left over, with provisions that it be deposited in the school museum where it will be safe from prying eyes.

Article V

To the school at large we will and bequeath:

- (1) our homeroom teacher, Mr. Rice, with his seven gray hairs and 1.437 square inches more of gray hair, on condition that a fund be set aside to provide either a tonic for his rapidly disappearing hair or a toupee.
- (2) one large plate of portraits (with frame and glass) of our dear selves, now found in room 10.
- (3) thirty-nine seats in room 11.
- (4) our sweet memory.

Article VI

(1) Louis Black does will and bequeath himself to the physics lab, to be assisted by Mr. Poling.

(2) Archie Shanower, lyric soprano and understudy of Lawrence Tibbett, does will and bequeath his caroling ability to warbling Harry Stroud. (All the better to woo her with, my dear.)

(3) Bill Young, otherwise known as Wary Willie, does will and bequeath his undaunted ambition to be able to look the world in the eye and say, "Today I am a man," to Johnny Benbow.

(4) Monty "Casanova" Fisher does will and bequeath—oh, why go any further, girls?

(5) Mellie Gifford does will and bequeath his talented toes to that Fred Astaire of the junior class, Glen Sherman.

(6) James V. Class, Jr. does will and bequeath his interest in the American Sky-Hook Co., Inc., comprising six shares, or about $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of this flourishing enterprise, to that budding financial genius of the Class of '39, Don Batchelor.

(7) Perry Hume Davis II, our only only-one-womaner, does will and bequeath to all the girls everywhere the memory of a faithful man. May they cherish and preserve this memory forever.

(8) Thelma Scott does will and bequeath her well-known bashfulness to that freshman man-hater, Nadine Arnold.

(9) Margaret Jefferson wills her typewriter, along with her ability, to Mr. Herbert Baker.

(10) "Speed Demon" Andy Eloff does will and bequeath the sixth seat, second row, of the detention hall to "Minute Man" Don Langstaff. May its use have more effect upon him than upon Andy.

(11) Waldo H. Ettinger does will and bequeath his poor technique to John Wilmot.

(12) Roger Porter does will and bequeath his long finger nails to that little kitten, Olive Richards.

(13) Bill Forsyth does will and bequeath his patented hair dress—with bobby pins—to Miss Nunvar.

(14) Bob Scott does will and bequeath his ability to attract the gentler sex to Laurie Lumme.

(15) Philip Cohn does will and bequeath his quietness to that bugle-blowing sophomore, Clifford Rentz.

(16) Ann Wrentmore does will and bequeath herself to the Cleveland Museum of Art.

(17) Itha Mae Richardson does will and bequeath her interest in red hair to that pursuer of flaming females—George Dana Clemens.

(18) Ethel Short does will and bequeath her intense love of studying to that mental wizard, Thomas Edison Stanton.

(19) Harold Sprague, catcher of the Championship Senior team, does will and bequeath his baseball ability to Bill Sargeant.

(20) Grace Stoneman, beautiful belle of amateur actresses, does will and bequeath her acting ability to her younger brother Jay, or vice versa.

(21) Lois Corlett, otherwise known as "Bob," does will and bequeath her interest in imported stock to that choosy importer of the Junior Class, Violet Martin.

(22) Hilda Jayney Cathan, Goddess of Wisdom, does will and bequeath her position as chief faculty advisor to Mr. Sands.

(23) Marian Richardson does will and bequeath her undying fidelity to "Klondike" Margaret Farrell.

(24) Yvonne Springer does will and bequeath her air of bashful innocence to Ethel Gore. May it fool all of the people all of the time.

(25) Margaret Benbow does will and bequeath her ability to be in early every night to that night owl, Elaine McFarland.

(26) Miriam Kent does will and bequeath her dislike for anything and everything related to school work to that studious, energetic, and enterprising, uprising, young scholar, Joe Johnson.

(27) Frank McDermott does will and bequeath his interest in work horses to the blushing equestrienne, Mary Jane Landrum.

(28) Donald Jones, by necessity, does will and bequeath to Mr. Poling his ability to explain things in order that forthcoming physics classes will be successes.

(29) Kenneth Shutts does will and bequeath a professorship in Shutts and Shutts, Inc., to Stanley Law, B.S.

(30) Peter Clemens does will and bequeath his ability to grow one sixteenth of an inch of beard in fourteen days to George Sindelar, provided, however, he return his fuzz to some green, underdeveloped peach.

CALENDAR

The chronicle of 1937-38 records the outstanding events of the year as follows:

- Sept. 7—Because of the possibility of an infantile paralysis epidemic school did not open the first week.
- Sept. 13—Excitement abounds no end on the first day of school. Mr. Fry, Mr. Poling, and Mr. DePaola were introduced to the student body.
- Sept. 15—Both Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs met and elected officers.
- Sept. 16—A Girl Reserve cabinet meeting was held for the purpose of nominating candidates for the vacant offices. Elections were held after school.
- Sept. 21—The Senior Class chose the Zenith Staff.
- Oct. 7—The G.A.A. girls started off the year with a supper hike.
- Oct. 12—The seniors tried out for parts in the senior play. A ring meeting was also held in the Senior Class.
- Oct. 13—The new members of the Girl Reserves were recognized at a very impressive service held at the Federated Church.
- Oct. 14—Mr. Rice's classes, as guests of the library, heard Mrs. Lewis, the author of "Young Fu of the Upper Yangtze."
- Oct. 19—The Girl Reserves took part in a rollicking initiation.
- Oct. 20—Amidst laughter and tear we received our first report cards.
- Oct. 25—Hi-Y initiation was held—night-marish as usual.
- Oct. 29—Today the teachers went to school, and because of the N.E.O.T.A. Convention we students rested.

- Oct. 30—The school Halloween Carnival was held for the benefit of the Athletic Association.
- Nov. 1—The seniors voted to have Clifford Norton of Cleveland do the photography for the Zenith.
- Nov. 3—The seniors of the football squad tied the other members 7-7 in the most exciting game of the year.
- Nov. 4—Clifford Norton began the photography for the Zenith.
- Nov. 5—A very beneficial assembly was offered by the Cleveland Sight Saving Council on how to preserve our eyes.
- Nov. 9—The seniors won the Intramural Baseball Championship from the eighth grade. Ah!—we seniors.
- Nov. 11—An Armistice Day Chapel Program was presented on preserving peace. The Girls' Glee Club participated.
- Nov. 12—The Girl Reserve-Hi-Y Dance swung into action with dim lights and new romances.
- Nov. 19—A magician, Heofert, presented the assembly program.

- Nov. 23—The Thanksgiving Banquet, given by the Girl Reserves, was honored to have Marian Jencick, a charter member of the club, as a guest speaker.
- Nov. 25—Thanksgiving Vacation began today. Hurrah, for the Pilgrims!
- Dec. 1—Report card day again. State tests were also begun today.

CALENDAR

- Dec. 2—Miss Haynam gave the Girl Reserves a splendid review of "Victoria Regina."
- Dec. 3—The senior rings (and other jewelry) arrived today.
- Dec. 8—The seniors gave their play its finishing touches at the dress rehearsal for "Growing Pains."
- Dec. 9—The Senior Class presented its dramatic masterpiece, "Growing Pains," to the world. It was both an artistic and a financial success.
- Dec. 13—Elections were held for the officers of Hi-Y. The senior officers are once more merely "members."
- Dec. 15—In spite of the glare of ice outside, the Glee Clubs and orchestra bravely performed for the P.-T.A.. As an added attraction to the holiday program the Public Speaking II Class gave a playlet, "No Christmas for Horace."
- Dec. 16—At the Girl Reserve Christmas party the girls exchanged gifts and sang carols.
- Dec. 17—Mr. DePaola and Mr. Baker were the highlights of the Christmas Chapel when they sang a duet.
- Dec. 22—The Girls' Glee Club, according to its usual custom, sang carols for the tubercular invalids at Warrensville Sanitarium.
- Jan. 3—School resumed with the usual bang.
- Jan. 7—In assembly Archer Diehl amused the students with anecdotes and epigrams.
- Jan. 12—Mrs Fouts chooses "Hollywood Bound" as the operetta. Rudolph Ringwall, assistant conductor of the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, spoke to P.-T.A. on "Children's Concerts."
- Jan. 14—Mr. Bowser, whom we all remember from last year, showed some very interesting pictures on Northwestern America.
- Jan. 17—The operetta books arrived today, and what curiosity there was!
- Jan. 18—With faces a mile long the whole school plunged into mid-year exams.
- Jan. 20—With smiles and huzzahs the students celebrated the end of final exams.
- Jan. 25—Mr. Baker tried dialogue for the operetta.
- Jan. 26—Report cards greet us once more—this time with semester grades on them!
- Jan. 28—Rev. Rowe delivered an enlightening message on "Temperance."
- Jan. 31—The cast for the operetta was announced today.
- Feb. 2—At a "hot" chili supper the Girl Reserves drew their "Capsule Sisters."
- Feb. 4—The Public Speaking II Class presented a debate in chapel on the question of "Armaments." It was well done, and interesting.
- Feb. 5—The Athletic Dance. It was a rather small but gala affair.
- Feb. 10—The much anticipated popularity contest was held today. In the evening there was a Girl Reserve Capsule Sister Banquet at which Miss Nunvar was witty for fifteen minutes. Imagine!

CALENDAR

Feb. 11—The Tucker School of Expression presented a one-act play in assembly.

Feb. 12—The Hi-Y Banquet. It was delicious, delightful, de-lovely and not soon-to-be-forgotten by either the boys or the girls.

Feb. 18—At the Girl Reserve meeting after school Miss Eldridge gave an inspiring talk on "Discovery."

Feb. 19—Mr. Lineback talked in assembly, giving the students some pointers on what they could do with grit and imagination.

Feb. 20—We all smiled bravely as we went to school on Washington's Birthday.

Feb. 24—The seniors of the room and squad beat the rest of the basketball squad 18-7.

Feb. 25—The school learned about
"The Industries of Ohio" and "Ohio at Play" through a movie which was given under the auspices of the Standard Oil Company.

Mar. 3—On Helen Keller Day the eighth grade presented a program in honor of the blind and this great woman.

Mar. 4—The Ford Motor dealers of Chagrin showed a movie on the Ford Rouge plant.

Mar. 11—The Western Reserve
Players gave Hans Sachs' play of the Sixteenth Century—"Paradise."

Mar. 17—The cast for the Junior
Play was chosen tonight.
Soon we will see some new "Duse's."

Mar. 18—R. G. Griswald explained the "Why's and Wherefore's" of the business world to the student body.

Mar. 25—The Western Reserve debaters were the guests of the high school.

Apr. 8—Dr. Cameron, who is well known to all of us, addressed the student body.

Apr. 22—The Junior Dance.
Well, I guess the seniors will have to admit that the juniors aren't helpless, after all.

May 6—The sophomores threw their annual "hop."

May 13—The juniors (they seem to have grown up at last) presented to the public their first stab at the drama,
"Spring Fever."

May 20—The May Concert again was a success. Mrs. Zoe Long Fouts directed.

May 26—The work of the students throughout the year was displayed at the School Exhibit.

May 29—The Methodist Church
sponsored Baccalaureate Services this year.

June 3—During the day the school was at the fairgrounds for "Play Day." Here the seniors received their last report cards. Commencement Exercises were held in the evening and the seniors were all there to bid their final adieu.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

LIKE people, classes have personality. To attempt to characterize the personality of the Class of 1938 is not to describe the hackneyed. This we do have in our favor. We are not a group of mature knowledge friends; neither are we too immature and giggly or eyebrow-lifting and sophisticated. Could we be an amalgamation of all? Yes—a class of independent free-lancers—each pursuing merrily his own way.

Of course we have contributed to the progress of the school—we have had, since we were freshmen, our singers, actors, and athletes. The athletes which we found in our midst have been of the finest quality, although not any too great in quantity. However, having more outstanding proclivities along artistic lines, we have lent ourselves admirably to music and the drama. The play, “Growing Pains,” which we presented in the fall of our last year was one of the finest the school has ever seen. The operetta, “Hollywood Bound,” also had a galaxy of seniors in its cast. But to start such enumerations would be to launch upon a tome. So bearing this in mind, never let it be said that the Class of '38 has not been and will not be “tops.”

HOW TO GET THE CAR—TAUGHT IN ONE EASY LESSON

by

One Who Wishes It Would Work

Nice weather we're having, isn't it, Pop?
(Hmm, didn't hear, guess I'll try again;
I must have that car; tonight is the hop.)
Oh, I say, Dad, can I have the car?
Aw, gee, Dad, I won't go far, but I gotta date,
And I won't be late, I'll get home early.
You know I don't drive fast, no siree, I won't even hurry.
Why, I'll even buy my own gas!
Ya, I know this is my weekly line,
But Dad, I just gotta have it this time.
I can? Oh boy! Thanks, Pop.
(I knew he'd come across when I started to tease.)
Oh, but Dad, where are the keys?
And, by the way, can you lend me a rock?
I'm so flat even my watch is in hock.
Well, Goodbye—
(Oh, I won't be home until morning,
I won't be home till the dawning,
Providing the gas holds out.)

By a Senior

Gold in the sunlight,
Gold in her smile,
But no gold in my pocket
For a heck of a while.

Money comes slowly
Like words to this poet,
And whenever I get some
I find that I owe it.

So hail and farewell;
Late met and soon parted.
Could money be grown,
I'd soon get some started.

"Ode to Archie"

I know a little "Curly Head,"
A senior in our school,
Who always minds his "P's" and "Q's"
And never breaks a rule.

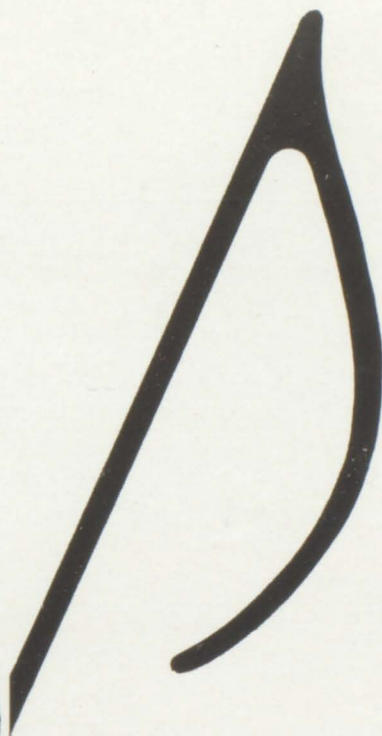

He knows the nicest things to do,
And makes the nicest dates,
He's always "Johnny on the Spot"
For him, nobody waits.

But sometimes he gets underfoot,
When I have things to do;
What ever shall I do with him?
I leave that up to you.

Yvonne, taking the examination for a driver's license, was asked, "If your brakes suddenly failed to work while you were going downhill, what would you do?"

She hesitated only a moment. Then she smiled brightly and answered, "Why, that's easy—I'd just jump out and put a big stone under the wheel!"

Mr. Rice: "What was the quantity of wheat exported from the United States in any stated year?"

F. McDermott: "In 1492—none."

Would That I Were Young
When I was young so long ago,
I thought it would be fun,
To study all about the things that
Make this big world run.
But now that I have grown a bit,
And have to learn such things,
As why we need a congress and why
We don't have kings,
I wish that I were young again
With idle time for play and fun,
With never an assignment due,
And be a happy son.

To a Teacher

(With apologies to Robert Burns and

O, would some power the gift to grant,
To rule our school just as we want!

To walk around with manner bold;
To stand in front; to glare and scold!

To shake each boy whose thoughts would stray
From the lesson, to his play!

Oh! Teacher, teacher beaming bright,
In the classroom—awful sight;
What immortal hand or eye,
Tells you to scold each girl and boy?

Spring

The brook is gurgling over stones
And seems to be in such a hurry.
The trees send forth their gentle groans,
The hepaticas show caps all furry.
The sap from maples is so sweet,
We hasten to them for a drink.
How soft the ground beneath our feet,
Where plain are seen the tracks of mink.

The bluebird's call is loud and clear,
The busy woodpecker taps the bark
And finds his breakfast is quite near.
The whistle of the meadow lark
Is heard in yonder field so green.
It fills my heart with joy sincere;
Because I know that Spring is queen.
