

WEBSTER defines a zenith as:

"The highest point reached in the sky by a heavenly body."

or "The point of culmination, the greatest height; summit; peak; acme."

Hoping that you would think of our account of school life in those terms, we named our yearbook the "Zenith".

The Zenith Staff

Y OU see above, those who have been responsible for this year's annual. It is the Zenith Staff of 1940.

The young lady on the far left holding the calendar is Maxine MacRitchie, Editor of the Calendar. Seated and looking at Maxine's calendar is Margaret Kivisto, a typist. Seated next to Margaret is Ethel Franks, another typist. Standing just behind her are David Solether and Anna Wallace, Editors of Photography and Art, respectively. Seated at the table with their eyes and hands on the dictionary are William Woodward and Ralph Langstaff, Editor-in-Chief of the Zenith and Assistant Editor of the Zenith, respectively. Leaning over, with his head between those of William's and Ralph's is Robert Christiansen, Editor of Humor. Standing next to him is Joseph Johnson, Editor of Sports who is showing some work to Edward Anderson, seated, a typist. Standing next to Edward is Coach Gurney, the Faculty-Advisor. He is looking confidently over the shoulder of Phyllis Hahn, Business Manager, who is pointing something out to Robert Ryan, Assistant Business Manager. Seated next to Robert is Genevieve Foster, another typist.

The Zenith Staff wishes to thank Mr. Gurney for his time and wise advice given to the Staff in preparation for your 1940 Zenith.

Office Staff

THIS is a familiar scene to anyone who attends Chagrin school from eight-thirty in the morning till three-thirty in the afternoon. In fact, if you do not attend school between the above hours, Mondays through Fridays, you will indubitably become too familiar with the above scene plus its characters. Standing by his office door is Mr. Sands, our superintendent. Busily writing on the counter, is Mr. Gurney, our principal. Seated in the background is Miss Hubay, school secretary. They try to keep things running as smoothly as possible to the best advantage of everybody as a whole. The business of managing school affairs rests on their shoulders.

THESE grade school teachers are the guiding lights of our childhood days. We seniors owe them much for their patience and endurance in building us solid foundations.

We hope, now that we are graduating, that they are pleased that most of us have reached the goal of Seniors, which they set up for us.

Seniors

JUST before you meet us Seniors formally in the pages to come, let us give a composite of the whole group in class. No, we do not suppose we look as dignified and as intelligent (maybe) as our formal pictures indicate, but here we are just as we are seen every day. Most of us have stuck together for twelve years, looking forward to when we, too, would be Seniors holding prominent pages in the Zenith.

RUTH STONEMAN:

Ruth proved to be a "chip off the old block" for she is a born leader. The last two years of school she was elected our class president. She found time for many extra-curricular activities, to say nothing of her scholarship.

EDWARD ANDERSON:

Ed, affectionately called "Gus" and "Olaf" by his friends, came to us from Russel four years ago. Prominent in athletics, he played varsity football and baseball. He was a member of the Science Club, Hi-Y, Honor Society, Balsa Boys, Band and Orchestra.

JEAN CARSON:

Jean was very quiet and reserved, which won her many fine friends. She was our class leader in the Girls' Sports Activities and was an active member of the G.A.A. The thing you noticed most about Jean was her radiant smile, which charmed everyone.

WILLIAM WOODWARD:

Bill was the Eddie Duchin of our class. Aside from drumming on the piano, he found time to be in both the Junior and Senior Plays and two Operettas. In his Senior year he was Editor-in-Chief of the Zenith and Vice President of the class. Although he did not come to Chagrin until his Junior year he soon became one of the most popular boys in our class.

Helen was known for her quiet sophistication. She had a keen eye for recognizing good styles in clothes, and she knew how to wear them. Her dancing made her recognized as one of the best rugcutters in our class.

LESLIE BANKS:

Les was the scientific genius of our class. He liked nothing better than puttering around the physics and chemistry laboratory, where many great men get their start. This shy and bashful boy also attained high grades and found time for action in the Science and Balsa Bugs Clubs.

MARGARET KIVISTO:

Beautiful handwriting—that identified Marg. She was chosen President of Girl Reserves this year, and was a member of Girls' Glee, Honor Society, and participated in the Senior Play.

ROBERT CHRISTIANSEN:

"Chick" joined our class when we were Sophomores. His wit, good humor and cheerful manner helped him gain many friends. In addition to being our class humorist, he was a general fix-all. At a play or Operetta, "Chick" was usually found backstage, puttering with the lights and wires.

CAROL WASS:

"Red" was the beauty of our class. Her soft, warm, brown eyes were the envy of many a girl. Although her red hair, brown eyes, and white skin made her a beauty, her most outstanding characteristic was her understanding and friendly manner.

MAXINE MACRITCHIE:

This happy-go-lucky little girl was known and admired for her quickness and alertness. Max acted in the Junior and Senior plays and was a capable Vice President for the Girl Reserves.

Well-dressed, talkative, witty, charming, and all-around swell fellow, that spelled the popularity of Davy. He held this standing ever since he entered Chagrin Falls High School. In his Senior year David blossomed out on the football squad, in Hi-Y, and Editor of Photography on the Zenith Staff.

JEAN CHILDS:

For vim, vigor and vitality, we give you, Jean. There was hardly an occasion that came up that was not benefited in some way by her helping hand. Without her the Class of '40 would never have been the same. Jean's task in Girl Reserves this year was to plan the programs. She was active in Operetta, Girls' Glee, and the Junior Play.

ROBERT RYAN:

As an outstanding scholar of the Senior Class, Bob's worthiness was recognized by many. Bob's flair for debating was an outstanding characteristic. This was shown in his activities which were: the presidency of the Honor Society, Hi-Y, Assistant Business Manager of the Zenith, and the Junior and Senior plays.

GENEVIEVE FOSTER:

"Skipper's" good taste for clothes was excelled only by her sweet nature and personality. An excellent pianist, she accompanied the Girls' Glee Club and Girl Reserves. She also played cello in Orchestra for four years. She was indispensable to the Zenith Staff as a typist.

GEORGE CLEMENS:

As captain of the football team "Clem" brought the team through with flying colors. He not only showed his ability on the football field but on the basketball floor as well. He was also a faithful member of Hi-Y.

ANNE WALLACE:

Many an organization was blessed with Anne's sense of humor and level-headed ideas. She was the kind of girl that no one could help liking and during her school years she rated high both socially and scholastically.

Bob was the little brother of the Senior Class. He was a great teaser but since it is all in fun we do not take him seriously. Bob intended to be a doctor and we all thought that when he attained that goal he would have a good "bed-side manner."

MARGARET FORSYTHE:

Becky returned to us in her Senior year. As a quiet, reserved person she made many lasting friendships. As a member of the Girl Reserves she proved her dependability.

RUTH HILL:

Ruth had a knack of knowing when to show up where she was really needed most. On every occasion, she was right beside you, eager to offer assistance in any way she could. As a Girl Reserve and a Glee Club member, Ruth's helpfulness and desire to assist will certainly be missed in future years.

BERNARD MAPES:

Bernie came to Chagrin in his Junior year and immediately became popular with everybody. His infectious laugh would make anybody howl with glee. Bernie became a member of Hi-Y and participated in baseball and basketball.

VIVIAN SHELTON:

Viv was known for her vivaciousness. Her very walk was filled with pep. For many years she was a cheerleader and shall long be remembered for her ability to give the team that needed ingredient to win the game. She also cut a lot of "Capers" on the dance floor.

JOE JOHNSON:

Joe was the boy with the slickened black hair. He was one fellow who really got around. Joe participated in football and basketball. He was in Hi-Y and also a member of the Zenith Staff.

One of the most diligent workers of our Senior Class, Mary was preparing herself to be a teacher. A typical tomboy, she portrayed "Christian", the lead of the Senior Play. Mary was active in the Radio and Camera Club, and was the only girl in the Physics and Trig Classes.

HAROLD FAST:

"Mose" was the "tycoon of Wall Street" of our class. His imaginary earnings in Economics Class astounded us all. He was known for his lanky gait and leisurely manner. Harold duly won his letter in football and was in the Hi-Y and the Junior Play.

Eva Jean Hutchings:

Eva Jean's domestic abilities will long hold her in good stead after high school. In Girl Reserves, she was elected Service Chairman, which vouches for the fact that she was adept in the management of various functions.

RALPH LANGSTAFF:

When it came to singing and acting Ralph was always ready, willing, and able. He took part in both our Class plays and in several Operettas. He proved his ability to work when he served as President of the Class and of the Hi-Y, also assistant Editor of the Zenith.

Josephine Venchiarutti:

Jo was with us for many years. She was a girl with many fine qualities. One of her most outstanding characteristics was her neatness and good taste in dressing. Her ability to be quiet and reserved was a feat to be analyzed by the Senior Class.

JOEL BURNETT:

"Windy", in spite of his nickname, was popular enough with the underclassmen to be voted the most handsome boy of our class. A genius in the art of gabbing, his argumentative qualities were welcomed by the Hi-Y and the cast of the Senior Play. Joel excelled in football and basketball and duly won his letter.

Betty came to our class in her Junior year. Her little girl manner endeared her to all our hearts. She was always willing to do anything that was asked of her. She was known to her most intimate friends as Scarlett O'Woolway.

WILLIAM SHELTON:

Bill was one of our best athletes. He was the kind of fellow who liked one thing and stuck to it, and Bill was liked by all of us for his friendly manners. "Murph" was a fellow who will make many friends and get somewhere in life.

ALEX HIMLER:

A great lover, a fine athlete, and a clean-cut personality add up to only one person. That was Eckie Himler. How he would make the girls' heads swim when he wrote them a note would make Casanova green with envy. Besides being popular with the girls he was probably more popular with the boys due to his happy-go-lucky attitude.

DORIS NOAKES:

Nokesy was a newcomer to our class but when she came to Chagrin with that southern accent nobody could help but like her. Doris did not have time to join any activities but she made up for that by winning the hearts of everybody who came in contact with her.

KENDALL MANLOVE:

Bashful Ken, that's what we used to call him. But Ken had what it took and started us out on the right track by being our first Class president way back in 1936. A mischievous rascal, with sparkling brown eyes, he was liked by every single one of us.

VIOLET GORDON:

One of the most feminine maids of our class. Vi was the only Senior girl that warbled notes with the sopranos in Girls' Glee. A faithful follower of the Girl Reserves for three years, Vi's sweet charm and personality carried her far and will continue to do so in future years.

Bruno was reserved and quiet, a good friend with a sense of humor. An excellent track man, Bruno was also an active member of the Balsa Bugs, Science Club and Hi-Y.

PHYLLIS HAHN:

Phil had often been called the Elsa Maxwell of the Senior Class. Whenever the kids wanted something to do they asked Phyllis to give a party and she always gave us one that was packed with fun and surprises. Besides being a good hostess, Phyllis found time to join Girls' Glee, Girl Reserves and was elected business manager of the Zenith.

KENNETH HALLSTROM:

A newcomer in our Junior year, Ken came to us all the way from New Jersey. "Swede" was well known and admired for his ability in the Industrial Arts. Besides his steady pal, Marg, Ken made many friends in two short years.

ETHEL FRANKS:

Ethel returned to us again after three years of absence. She took up the place she left just as though she had not gone. She took part in the Senior play, Girls' Glee, Girl Reserves, and became a member of the Honor Society. A natural-born typist, Ethel filled her task ably on Zenith Staff.

CLIFFORD RENTZ:

Cliff was known by all of us for his quick wit. He was with us since Junior high school. He was active in the Balsa Bugs. He was very friendly and was the kind of a fellow who would give you the shirt off his back.

BETTY JANE OBERLIN:

Quiet, but full of life, and a regular cut-up. B. J. assumed her duties in Girl Reserves, Junior Play and Girls' Glee with an experienced touch and came though with flying colors. She was just an all-around swell pal.

The Underclassmen

We tell them how green they are and how much they do not know. This traditional custom did not start with us and certainly will not end with us. Seniors have always considered themselves to be high and mighty superiors because of their grade rating. They seem to forget they themselves were green if not greener, and ignorant if not more in the eyes of the past Seniors than the present underclassmen are in the eyes of them, the present Seniors. But all of this is in the life of the high school. The tables turn. Time does not change this. We present hopefully the underclassmen, for in their hands lies the future of the school.

THE Junior Class started its school career under the guidance of Mrs. Maiden and Miss Pugsley. From that time to this the Class has shown considerable progress in studies, athletics and social life.

We presented our first play and also sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom, both of which were great successes. Some of our class mates had leading parts in the operetta and they also participated in many other extra-curricular activities.

We only hope that we can take the place of the producers of this book next year and carry on the traditions of Chagrin Falls High School as well as they have done.

Eighth Grade

S EVEN years ago fifty boys and girls came to school for the first time. During those first six years we lost a few pupils but others came to take their places.

At first we weren't accustomed to the schedule of the high school but Miss McKenna and Mr. Kearney had great patience with us.

Now that we are in the eighth grade we are enjoying our privileges more than in the seventh grade.

Back Row: Lewis, Burnett, J. Babcock, Benbow, Chittenden, Kulcsar. Fourth Row: Jones, Kolm, J. Smith, Wilson, Stratton, Hoopes, R. Clemens, R. Clemens, B. Rufener. Third Row: Irwin, Hermetet, Selleck, Henderson, Allshouse, W. Smith, C. Rufener, Stanton. Second Row: Kackel, White, Fast, Mr. Fry, Bagley, Tuttle, Davis, Sindelar, Hensley, B. Babcock, Mikesell, Stephens, Dunton, Hine, Miss McKenna, Sprague, Colescott, Enslen. First Row: Kerwin, Richards, Lambert, Colvin, W. Shelton, E. Shelton, Lowe, Fairweather, Gleason, Hoge.

Seventh Grade

In the stormy year of 1933, fifty little sailors went aboard "The Ship of Life." Seven years have passed. Seven ports have been entered. We have had calm seas and rough seas. Some of our sailors have transferred at ports and some new ones have come aboard. We are now in our seventh port with forty-eight seamen aboard and all is well. Now the crew is preparing to put the ship in shape to make the rough voyage to its eighth port. Our training has been good and our outlook is hopeful. We expect to make port with flying colors.

Activities

TO many students the extracurricular activities of Chagrin school, or any school as far as that goes, serve as a flavor to sweeten the bitterness and drudgery of school work and study. Many students feel, however, that these clubs and organizations are designed to better a student socially and culturally and to give him or her a broader and better understanding and realization of the pleasures and opportunities that school and after life can give. The activities, to be seen, undoubtedly are planned by school authorities to introduce to the student the above-mentioned values.

Girl Reserves

Back Row: Beattie, Maiden, Hopkins, Selleck, Carzoo, Eldridge. Fifth Row: Burkhardt, Manley, Kulcsar, Ditto, Margrander, Rood, Shelton. Fourth Row: Walters, Smith, While, Bottomy, Fowler, Wright, Bagley, Wilson, B. Stoneman. Third Row: Lambert, Davis, Miss Eberst, Ricker, Richardson, Feihl, M. Kivisto, Bronfield, Silvernail, Russell, Burgess, Suter, Parker, McMahan, Miss Wickham, Hissett, Huggett. Second Row: Schiffler, Wallace, Forsyth, Franks, Hahn, Wass, Gordon, Childs, Foster, Oberlin, Hill, Yunkes, Woolway. First Row: Hutchings, Trible, Mercer, Enslen, M. Kivisto, MacRitchie, R. Stoneman, Greed, Arnold, G. Stoneman.

THIS year, 1940, will mark the eighteenth year of existence for a Girl Reserve Club of Chagrin Falls High School.

During the year, the members of our club try to perform as many acts of friendship and service as possible.

Under the splendid guidance of Miss Wickham and Miss Eberst, our advisers, and Mrs. Sands and Mrs. Gurney, our patronesses, we have had many interesting and pleasant meetings in the past year.

A T the beginning of the year Boys' Glee soon thought that the loss of last year's senior voices would be too severe for accomplishment of this year's club. However, after the testing of voices and election of officers, we soon came to realize that there was good material in the new freshmen.

"The Forest Prince", which the Girls' and Boys' Glees presented together, was, as to be expected, a fine success.

We hope Chagrin has a much better glee club in the future. This year we had eight freshmen, eight sophomores, five juniors, but only two seniors.

Science

Back Row: Sargent, Banks, Fosdick, Anderson, Lumme. Second Row: Mr. Poling, Rosengreen, Bradley, Pugsley, Ryan, Lowe. First Row: Himler, Mercer, Enslen, Wallace, Hutchings, Wilmot.

THIS newly-organized club is made up of the more scientifically-minded members of the physics and chemistry classes. The plans for the club were drawn up under Mr. Poling's supervision by eight students from the above classes. Other students were asked to join and now the membership is around fifteen.

The club is divided into two parts, but hold joint meetings.

THE "subs", as they are called, are the ones who make teams what they are. These are the boys who go up to practice, work hard, but many times never reach the point of winning a game, unless it is from the bench. We can look forward to many underclassmen becoming regulars on next year's varsity.

Best of Luck, Boys!

Lettermen

George (Captain) Clemens-Guard

George Clemens played his second year on the varsity. He was Captain of the Champion Eleven. George was often called the backbone of the line because he showed hard fight and clean sportsmanship. His shoes will be hard to fill next year.

David Solether-Guard

Dave in his first year on the varsity was handicapped because of the lack of experience, but he was soon found in the fighting with that neversay-die-spirit. Dave brought many surprises to the opposing team, which will long remember his tackling ability.

Alex Himler-Guard

"Eck" played hard and showed many teams that they couldn't get by him without some difficulty. Eck surprised them when he intercepted a pass and ran 85 yards for a touchdown. Next year's team will have a hard time finding someone to fill Eck's place on the line.

Lauri Lumme-End

Lauri was the right-hand man of the team, who could be called upon to fill any position on the line and fill it well. This was Lauri's first year on the varsity, but he was one of those who never gave up. Lauri will be missed by next year's team.

Harold Fast-End

Harold did a good job of holding down an end position. Harold's hard fighting spirit helped Chagrin in more ways than one. Perry will never forget the two touchdowns that "Mose" made which helped down them.

Joel Burnett—Center

'39 was "Windy's" first year on the varsity. Undoubtedly he played as fine a game as anyone could expect. More accurate passing from center couldn't be expected of anyone. Coach will have a hard time finding a center like "Windy".

George Sindelar-Halfback

George was one of the coolest players on the squad. George was runner-up in points and due to his hard playing and clean sportsmanship he was elected next year's captain. This is George's third year on the varsity and Chagrin Falls will expect great things next year from him.

Bill Edwards-Fullback

It was Bill's second year at fullback. He made more points than anyone on the squad. Opposing teams had a hard time stopping Bill when he got underway. We will expect a lot more from this grand fellow next season.

Paul Kellam-Halfback

Paul was one of the shiftiest backs on the squad. His hard fight and cheerful spirit helped Chagrin out of the rough many times this year. Being only a Junior he will be a great help to next year's team.

William Martin-Guard

"Bill" was only a sophomore but had he football spirit! This was shown in the Orange and Hudson games. "Bill" will be blood and iron to the coming eleven.

Anthony Rosengreen—Halfback

"Tony" was one of those backfield men you seldom hear about but he was one that could always be called upon to pull Chagrin out of a tough spot. "Tony" has won many friends through his clean nature and next year will find him ready to fight faithfully for dear old Chagrin.

Edward Anderson-Tackle

As with others, this was "Ed's" first year on the varsity. He showed he really had what it takes. "Ed" was one who labored faithfully and yet you never heard a word from him. "Coach" will have a hard time to find another like "Ed".

Assistant Coach DePaola

"A.C.", as he is called by everyone, worked hard with "Coach" and the team. His friendly spirit helped the team in many ways. Lots of credit goes to "A.C." in winning the championship.

John Bradley-End

John, playing his third year at end, showed how he could reach the pigskin and kick extra points. John received an injury late in the season which held him up from showing more of his hard fight. We will hear more of Johnny next year.

Robert Kuhlman-Quarterback

"Curley" was the brain work of the team and was the boy who received lots of credit when things were going smoothly but was blamed when things were not going so smoothly. He was one of those who could take it.

"Curley" could be called upon to pick up a few yards anytime. His score was a great help many times. We will expect great things from him next season.

Tom Stanton-Tackle

Tom started this season with a bang but was downed by a leg injury and so we hope that next year he will have a chance to show what he really has.

Richard Mitchell-End

"Dick" was one of those sophomores who showed many people that he could play football.

"Dick" played end and played it well. Many times he felt like giving up but just kept on trying until he made good. "Dick" will be a great help to next year's team.

John Wilmot-Manager

Although "Johnny" was only a Junior, he received his varsity letter, being the head manager of the squad. Though John didn't make touchdowns, he did more than his share of work in helping the team on to victory. If a player was hurt in any way, he could always be helped by a cheerful word from their fine manager.

Robert Schwind-Center

"Bob" played every position on the line but end, and played them well. This was "Bob's" first year on the varsity and he exhibited some real playing. We will hear more about him in 1940.

"Coach" Gurney

When the season opened, Coach had only five varsity members back and this meant plenty of hard work. He took this with a grain of salt and began. Soon he had a well-balanced team which fought their way on to a championship. This is Coach's 14th year at Chagrin and we hope to have him with us many more.

Glen Snider-Halfback

Glen, only a sophomore, showed some good possibilities of becoming an outstanding player in the coming years. Glen played in the back field this year and certainly showed the Independence team. It took more than one player to stop him. We will expect great things of Glen in the coming years.

CHAGRIN 21-MENTOR 0

Chagrin opened the season like veterans by downing Mentor. In this game Capt. Clemens led the team on to victory in their new uniforms.

Himler, Edwards and Kuhlman made touchdowns for Chagrin.

HUDSON 21—CHAGRIN 13

The boys were full of hope that day, and it was unfortunate Chagrin lost to Hudson in their home game opener.

Sindelar and Kuhlman scored for Chagrin with Kellam following with extra points.

CHAGRIN 19—WICKLIFFE 0

Our Orange and Black trounced Wickliffe to win their second game this season. Then Bill Edwards ran 95 yards for a touchdown on the opening kick-off of the second half. Edwards and Mitchell both added another to rally for Chagrin.

W. R. A. 25-CHAGRIN 13

Chagrin, playing out of its class, lost to the tune of 25-13. Sindelar started as he galloped for a touchdown on the kick-off in the second half.

CHAGRIN 34—CHARDON 0

Another game in which the star eleven was tops. Chagrin tooks its spite out on poor little Chardon after having been beaten the week before by W. R. A. Bill Edwards was the "King" as he scored three touchdowns for Chagrin.

CHAGRIN 28—PERRY 12

Our proud team fought its way on to Championship by beating Perry in a thrilling game. This was the Seniors' last League game. Fast pulled two out of the air and ran for touchdowns. Kellam and Edwards added two more touchdowns.

CHAGRIN 12—INDEPENDENCE 13

Our eleven were downed by Independence in a very close game. George Sindelar led the field in making both touchdowns. John Bradley played an excellent game but received an injury in this game that stopped him from playing the rest of the year.

CHAGRIN 19—ORANGE 0

Chagrin downed their biggest rival in one of the most important games of the season. Bill Edwards scored all the points for Chagrin. The team showed its best part of their prime on a rain-wet field. This was the Seniors' last game.

CHAGRIN 15—HUDSON 20

Chagrin opened the season this year by playing Hudson at Hudson. They are out of our class but nevertheless Chagrin lost in a hard fought game by only five points.

CHAGRIN 23—CHESTER 15

Here was where our boys clicked and showed Chester it would take their best ability to down us. Sindelar led the score with sixteen points.

CHAGRIN 29—WILLOUGHBY 19

Chagrin was tops again when they turned back Willoughby in a very exciting game. Our team was again paced by Sindelar with ten points, and Edwards with seven points.

"B" Team

THE "B" Team this year turned out a very successful season with thirteen victories out of eighteen games. They were paced this season by James Kraushaar with 96 points. Floyd Rake was runner up with 89 points.

Our "B" Team this year was augmented by three senior boys who were of great help and deserve a lot of credit for their loyal sportsmanship in staying with the team.

These are: Kendal Manlove—forward—who scored 38 points, Bernie Mapes with 31 points and George Clemens—guard—with 9.

Richard Mitchell-Center

"Dick", being one of the taller members of the team, played center and did a good job of it. "Dick" was a cool and steady player, which helped very much on the offensive and defensive. "Dick" is only a Sophomore; consequently we will hear more of him in the future.

Robert Kuhlman-Forward

"Curly" had a hard time getting in the groove, but when he did you never saw anything like it. "Curly" was a clean, hard and spirited player, who helped Chagrin in more ways than one.

George Sindelar-Forward (Captain)

George was the only varsity man back from last year. He was our point getter, who led our team with 183 points this season. George was placed on the Western Reserve All-Star Basketball Team, and was picked as an All-Star forward at the tournament at Orange.

George is a most dependable man to have around, which is not hard to understand. He is one of the finest sports in Chagrin Falls.

Alex Himler-Guard

This was "Eck's" first year on the varsity and he filled the position like a veteran. "Eck" kept Chagrin on its feet in the Perry game, making three beautiful long shots and followed with a free throw to lead Chagrin with seven points. Coach will have a hard time finding a man with the hard fight and clean sportsmanship that "Ecky" had.

Joel Burnett-Guard

Joel was one of those men who could be called at any time to fill any position and really do a good job of it.

Joel didn't make many points, but he surely helped in setting up plays and was a grand man to have on the defense.

We hate to see Joel leave.

William Edwards-Guard

"Bill" was our fighter on the team from the time a game started until the whistle blew. Bill got honorable mention on the All-Star Basketball Team of the Western Reserve League. He was runner-up with 82 points. We will look forward to seeing Bill as one of the more outstanding players of next year's team.

CHAGRIN 26—PERRY 24

This was Chagrin's first League game which they won by a very close score. This was one game which will long be remembered for its thrilling sport and close decision.

CHAGRIN 35—BEDFORD 36

Bedford seems to nose out Chagrin on a one point margin every time. Last year the score was 37-36. This year 36-35. Though losing this game Chagrin showed much improvement in their defense. However, this started Chagrin on its bad streak of defeat.

CHAGRIN 23—ORANGE 24

Chagrin dropped a close decision to its most formidable rivals. Chagrin was never more than three points ahead or behind. It was worse than losing by a big score to the boys down Orange-way.

CHAGRIN 14—MENTOR 16

Mentor was another League game in which our Orange and Black had not regarded its strength until it was too late. In this game, Sindelar Mitchell, and Edwards tied for high point honors.

CHAGRIN 17—Solon 24

The Cuyahoga County Champs downed us in a hard fought game which was lost as Chagrin slowed up in the closing minutes of the game. Bradley led the field with five points.

CHAGRIN 18—PERRY 26

Perry came back and licked us to the tune of 26 to 18 which was another defeat in our Western Reserve Athletic League running. Himler was tops of the scoring list as he hit the net for 7 points.

CHAGRIN 27—KIRTLAND 24

Our team sparkled tonight as they came behind in the fourth quarter and beat the League leaders by three points. This was the beginning of a new season for Chagrin!

CHAGRIN 31—CHARDON 20

Chagrin came back again, this week to beat Chardon by eleven points. This was another League game. They were again paced by Sindelar with fourteen points.

CHAGRIN 28-MENTOR 29

Chagrin lost a hard fought game by one point. Bill Edwards was "hot", leading the way with eleven points.

CHAGRIN 31—KINGSVILLE 29

Our colors were flying high after this game in the tournament at Orange. By making two fouls, Chagrin came from behind to tie the score and Glen Snider hit the bucket to put Chagrin out in the lead and win the game. This was one game in which everyone's points counted. They were led by George Sindelar with fourteen points.

CHAGRIN 20—ROME 22

Chagrin lost to Rome by two points, which eliminated Chagrin from the tournament.

CHAGRIN 35—MAYFIELD 26

This was one of the most thrilling games of the year. Everything clicked just right and although many thought that Chagrin would lose they dropped Mayfield to the tune of the above score.

CHAGRIN 21—ALUMNI 36

Each year the "grads" seem to show our team up, due to their greater experience. This year the Alumni score was led by "Fuzz" Hammond with twelve points. Kuhlman led the high school boys with eight.

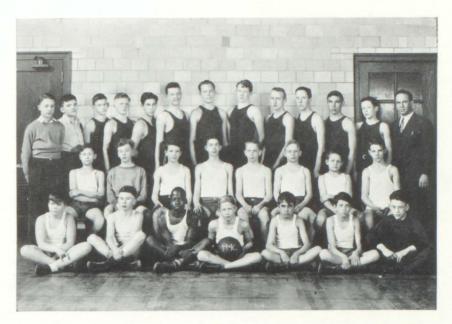

CHAGRIN 9-KIRTLAND 14

Chagrin's first defeat in the League was in a low scoring game to Kirtland who ended up the season in high rank. Sindelar and Mitchell took scoring honors with four points each.

CHAGRIN 24—CHARDON 26

Chardon came back with a heart breaker by beating Chagrin by two points in a very close game. Sindelar again led with ten points.

Minth Grade

THE ninth graders ended the season by hitting an average of fifty per cent. They won six and lost six. They were paced by William Manlove with 105 points, followed by Harry Brooks with 86.

The seventh and eighth grades played commendably good ball this year. They won four out of five games. They were led by Charles Benbow and Harold Allshouse with 43 and 33 points respectively.

It must be said that Coach DePaola is building some fine material for the "B" and "A" teams of years to come.

Senior Class History

THE ocean liner, the "C. F. Class of '40" is about ready to pull out from the dock. For a long time preparations have been going on in the ship vard. The trunks of knowledge have been stacked in alphabetical order many times only to have to be disturbed once more for the leave-taking of one or two of its members. The ship's officers have tried to keep the crew under heavy discipline and were rewarded by their efforts with only a meeting here and there. The empty holds have been filled with knowledge and the hatches are now ready to be battened down in ship-shape style. There is an air of excitement everywhere as last minute provisions are being made on the liner. The engine room is filled with the hard-working crew who are willing to do anything to get their ship to its destination wherever it may go. The passengers are scurrying in last minute haste to their staterooms, assigned to their proper deck, a, b, or c according to their wealth of knowledge. At last, the lines are cast loose and the gangplank is pulled up. Let us all wish that in the dim future there will be no shipwreck.

Junior Play

THE plot of "Guess Again" centered about a certain Inn in Southern California which was not doing very good business. That is, not until Bill Douglas, a college boy staying at the Inn, decided to have the Englishman, who had just registered, play the role of Lord Wiggleton, a famous English peer. The story begins to thicken when another Englishman comes in and registers as the real Lord Wiggleton. The untangling of this case of mistaken identity provided a humorous and thoroughly enjoyable play. The cast was as follows:

| Janet Moore, a college girl working at Edgewater InnMary Louise Mercer |
| Bill Douglas, a college boy in love with JanetBob Lowe |
| Henry Grimes, owner and manager of the Inn |
| Waldo Fitts, porter and general nuisance at the InnJohn Wilmot |
| Mrs. O. O. Skinner, a guest at the Inn |
| Dora Mae, her rather fresh daughter |
| Olive Ordway, a health fadistJeanne Trible |
| Marcella Jenks, a journalistic girl wonder |
| Bertie Blodgett, valet to Lord Wiggleton |
| Lord Wiggleton, from EnglandBob Pugsley |
| S. H. ("Soak-'em Hard") Pratt, the local banker |
| Renee Lamour, a chiseler from HollywoodNorma Margrander |
| Lulu Perkins, a big-league newspaper columnistSylvia Brondfield |
| Sol Messer, a movie magnateBob Schwind |

Senior Play

THE outstanding feature of the senior play this year was the way in which each person seemed exactly suited to the part he or she portrayed—the absent-minded professor, the frivolous wife, their three children, the Danish maid and all the rest of "The Merry Hares." The plot, built up around the Hare family, crazy but lovable, involved a rich aunt, a boat race, two cases of mistaken identity and several love affairs. A silly neighbor girl with a case of puppy love, the hero mistaken for a brush salesman and the older sister's plot to ensnarl a rich young explorer provided much merriment. "The Merry Hares" were truly triumphant in providing an evening of delightful entertainment.

(Cast of Characters on page 69)

Helen Yunkes, latest addition to the Russian Ballet, was found by the census taker at the Old Sailors Home in Death Valley, California, which is maintained by Miss Betty Jane Oberlin. Helen and B.J. are staging a benefit performance for the nautical nuts.

Kenneth Hallstrom and his lovely bride, Margaret Kivisto, were found at the home of "Bluebeard" Johnson, the man with many wives.

David Solether, President of the Paramount Studios, told the enumerator that his 1959 income of $7,000,000.03 will be spent on publicity for his new star, Mary Hutchings, who will succeed Shirley Temple.

Miss Childs found Robert Wallace Ryall, noted race track bookie, at his Long Island estate giving riding lessons to Jean Carson, society matron.

Ethel Ryan was the only woman of the whole census who did not know her husband's income. She has been quite successful in her long career as model housewife.

Ruth Hill and Eva Jean Hutchings were found at Reno, Nevada, where they have been travelling annually for the last fourteen years.

"Skipper" Foster was busy dusting volumes of Voltaire in the new Chagrin Falls Library when the census enumerator called. Miss Foster states that children are more careless than ever in their new treatment of the classics.

When the final results of the census were calculated, these important statistics were found:

H. J. Fast cleared $17,923,000.02 on the stock market in 1959.

Bruno Lumme has been secretly married for the last nineteen years. Clifford Rentz was arrested seventy-five times for speeding and twenty-three times for flying too low.

Kendall Manlove lost $2,000,000.00 in a poker game.

Doris Nokes gives her husband a round million yearly for cigarette money.

We are sure this little look into the census enumerator's business was uninteresting, and useless to no end, but we must leave you now so, "Au revoir!"

Senior Class Will

On this day, the twenty-ninth of May, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty, we, the almighty Senior Class, do proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

Article I. To the juniors we do will and bequeath our ability of knowing all that is right, fine, upstanding, courageous, and worthy of our intellectual capacities.

Article II. To the underprivileged sophomores we patronizingly do will and bequeath them the fatherly affections of Ralph D. Poling. May he guide them to higher ideals of education.

Article III. To the lowly freshmen we do will and bequeath the illustrious, and industrious faculty.

Article IV. To the school as a whole we do will and bequeath our devoted and unfaltering adherence to the policies of the administration of Chagrin Falls High School.

- Sec. 1. Ed Anderson wills his musical ability to that maestro, Theron Fosdick, who hopes to use it playing those Harlem Blues under the direction of Mrs. Fouts.
- Sec. 2. Leslie Banks wills his loud audaciousness to that shy little mouse Harold Stoneman.
- Sec. 3. Joel Burnett wills his drawing ability to Miss Bartholomew, who must have sufficient sketches to make up quite a camp.
- Sec. 4. Jean Carson wills her athletic ability to wee Ann Huggett who will share it with the rest of the sophomore girls.
- Sec. 5. Jean Childs wills her amiability to the European nations in their hour of need.
 - Sec. 6. Bob Christiansen wills his love of the women to Francis Marti.
- Sec. 7. George Clemens wills his athletic ability to Mr. Fry to be used for playing ping pong.
- Sec. 8. Harold Fast wills his ambition, vigor, studiousness and energy to that sluggish junior Minerva Enslen.
- Sec. 9. Margaret Forsythe wills her nickname, Becky, to President Roosevelt and the W.P.A. workers, who probably have been called enough names already.
- Sec. 10. Genevieve Foster wills her good taste in clothes to the modern milkman, Tom Stanton.
- Sec. 11. Ethel Franks wills Bob Ryan to Brenda and Cobina who are too flip for him.
 - Sec. 12. Violet Gordon wills her well-defined music to Helen Maiden.
- Sec. 13. Phyllis Hahn wills her little brother to the Chagrin Falls Champion Football Team.
- Sec. 14. Kenneth Hallstrom wills his blond hair to the Russians, who can use it as a camouflage against the Finns' white army.
- Sec. 15. Ruth Hill wills her typing ability to the "hunt and peck" demon of Mr. Baker's third period class, Roger Sheer.

- Sec. 16. Alex Himler wills "Buller" Brushes to Paul Kellam.
- Sec. 17. Eva Jean Hutchings wills her domestic talents to one whose dinners have watered the mouths of many an innocent bystander, that wizard of culinary arts, Gloria Kelly.
- Sec. 18. Mary Hutchings wills her tomboy attitude and boyish looks to Elsinor Hopkins.
- Sec. 19. Joe Johnson wills his gigolo-like hair cut to all the Kreml advertisements in the magazines.
 - Sec. 20. Margaret Kivisto wills her beautiful handwriting to Donn Nichols.
- Sec. 21. Ralph Langstaff wills his golden voice to Glenn Snider, for the second consecutive year.
- Sec. 22. Bruno Lumme wills his hard muscles to the Charles Atlas of the eighth grade, Fat Smith.
 - Sec. 23. Maxine MacRitchie wills her size 3½ shoes to Coach Gurney.
- Sec. 24. Kendall Manlove wills his green sweater to Santa Claus who is to pick all the Christmas tree needles out of it.
 - Sec. 25. Bernard Mapes wills his horse laugh to Seabiscuit.
 - Sec. 26. Doris Noakes wills her Southern accent to Bill Sargent.
- Sec. 27. Betty Jane Oberlin wills all her affections to the guardian of our shores, the United States Navy.
- Sec. 28. Clifford Rentz wills his speed driving tactics to Toddy Fast, just in case it runs in the family.
 - Sec. 29. Bob Ryall wills his horse riding abilities to Susan Davis.
- Sec. 30. Bob Ryan wills his curly raven locks to a certain someone who is in need of them. Bob trusts Mr. Rice will use discretion in his arrangement.
 - Sec. 31. Bill Shelton wills his brute strength to Jack Kimpel.
- Sec. 32. Vivian Shelton wills her vitality to be baked in bread and sold at 10¢ a loaf to football players.
- Sec. 33. David Solether wills the Falls Theatre to the Chagrin Falls public at 25¢ a ticket. Bank night every Wednesday evening.
- Sec. 34. Ruth Stoneman wills her two terms of Presidency to the Democratic Party, who thinks two terms are not sufficient.
 - Sec. 35. Josephine Venchiarutti wills her loud antics to Jimmy Woodward.
 - Sec. 36. Anne Wallace wills her nickname "Tugboat" to the English Navy.
- Sec. 37. Carol Wass wills her red hair to the hairdressers of Chagrin Falls, for display purposes.
- Sec. 38. Bill Woodward wills his absentmindedness and seat number one in detention hall to Bob Lowe.
- Sec. 39. Betty Woolway, commonly known as Scarlett O'Woolway, wills her siren abilities to Norma Margrander and Mary Eldridge.
 - Sec. 40. Helen Yunkes wills her jitterbugging abilities to Billy Edwards.

ADVERTISING

THE next time you buy something downtown, think of our Zenith. For it is only because of the earnest support of the tradesmen of Chagrin Falls that Senior classes are enabled to publish an annual. Their good-will is always valued by Chagrin Falls High School. We feel that they, with us, have a deep interest in the student and his school life.

Mr. Poling: "Why do they have most all radio broadcasting stations on top of tall buildings?"

J. Burnett: "So nobody can throw bricks at the performers."

Prospective Employer: "Everything in this establishment is run by electricity."

K. Manlove: "Yes, I quite believe you. The salary offered has given me quite a shock." Policeman: "But how could a burglar steel a clock from your room when your dog was there?"

B. Ryan: "Oh, he's only a watch dog."

"Remember, my boy," said an elderly relative, "That wealth does not bring you happiness."

"I don't expect it to," answered Harold Fast. "I merely want it so that I may be able to choose the kind of misery most agreeable to me." Farmer: "Gosh, you must have plenty of nerve to come down in a parachute in a hundred mile gale like this."

Ed. Anderson: "I didn't come down in a parachute, I went up in a parachute."

And then there's the time when Bill Woodward went into a store to buy a jar. He saw one turned upside down and exclaimed:

"How absurd! Why this jar doesn't have any mouth!"

Turning is over he was once more astonished.

"Well, the bottom's gone too!"

Young Co-ed: "Oh, Dad, I've discovered that the girl who sits next to me in Biology has a hat exactly like mine."

Father: "So I suppose you want me to buy you a new one?"

Young Co-ed: "Well, that would be cheaper than changing schools."

Some midshipmen, while on off duty, were spending an afternoon off when a bad hombre came in and shouted: "All you dirty skunks get out of here." Everybody left but one small plebe. The bad hombre turned to him and said, "Well?"

"There sure were a lot of 'em," answered the plebe.
