ZENITH

Superintendent's Foreword

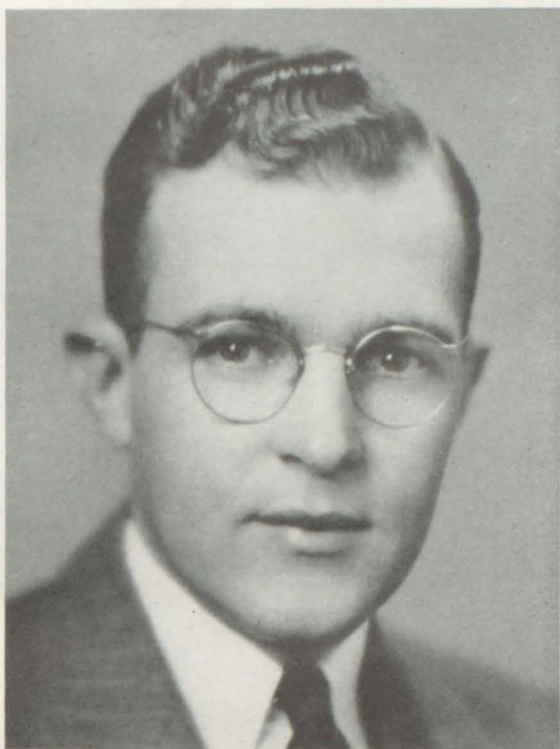

SINCE Pearl Harbor, our American Communities have given a great many of a generation of young men to the Military Services. Thousands of our young women have left their homes to serve their country in many parts of the world. For months, perhaps for years, other classes of young men and women will be called upon to serve their country as they reach military age.

The greatest asset of our nation is not in the treasury, nor is it listed on the books of our treasury department. It lies in the ideals, attitudes, and philosophies of the American youth. Upon those factors depends the outcome of all efforts, both public and private. The work of the public school as an agency for training on-coming generations of citizens is of concern to everybody. Indeed everybody has a part in it; everybody is a part of it.

This edition of the Zenith is attractive in appearance, and faithfully portrays all of the activities and interests of the school.

May we, therefore, express to the staff our indebtedness, and to all who read this Zenith our cordial greetings.

Lewis Sands

Dedication

- for his guidance, friendship, and indispensable aid in putting on school activities
- the class of 1944 proudly dedicate this, the thirty-fourth edition of the Zenith, to Mr. Norman D. Fry

SENIORS

Seniors

DAVID I. DRAZ

President

Dave's big brawny build matched his husky voice. One of the best liked fellows in the class, he was elected to numerous school offices, as well as serving as President of the class. In March, Dave left us to enter Milligan College as a Naval Air Corps Cadet.

LYNN E. SPRAGUE

Vice-President

Many a faculty gray hair was caused by Lynn's prankishness, but his fellow students thought enough of him to elect him President of the Student Council. The ease with which he maintained his high scholastic standard made him an envy of all the would-be "brain-children".

FRANCES L. M. HINE

Editor

Although versatile in many ways, Fran's prize possession was her writing ability. Her winning way and quick smile won her numerous friends among both students and faculty. A keen sense of humor was only another of Fran's many faculties.

Seniors =

PATRICIA COLVIN

Secretary

"Charming Pat" was the belle of the class. The results of the "Popularity Contest" gave sufficient proof of this. Between dates she spent her time by taking the lead in the senior play and drawing.

RICHARD A. CLEMENS

Treasurer

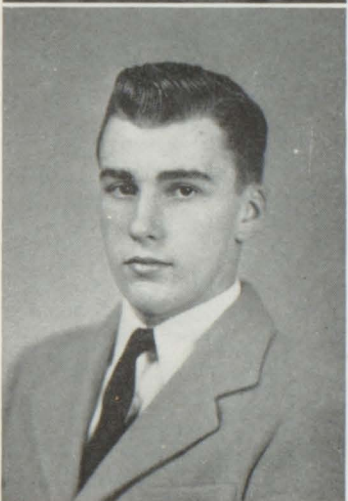

Thrice elected class treasurer, Dick was the seniors' official financier. His laughter was the despair of all the teachers, since it could usually be heard from the top floor to the basement. Aside from keeping the class business intact, he found time to participate in music and athletics.

WALTER A. BURNETT

Assistant Editor

"Breeze" was one of those gentlemen of savoir-faire, and yet he possessed a very boyish quality, too. His good looks set many a girl's heart dancing and his popularity with his classmates and the underclassmen made him one of the most prominent members of the senior class.

Seniors

CHARLES D. BENBOW

Smiling much and saying little except when it came to a good argument in English class, Charlie breezed through high school as one of the most likable members of our class. His smile was always a ready one and his Atlas-like physique made him a favorite with the girls.

WINIFRED A. DUNTON

Mathematics was Winnie's great achievement. She was the envy of every girl who has ever struggled with an $X + 4$ or the sum of the angles. Her friendly manner made her well liked by everyone.

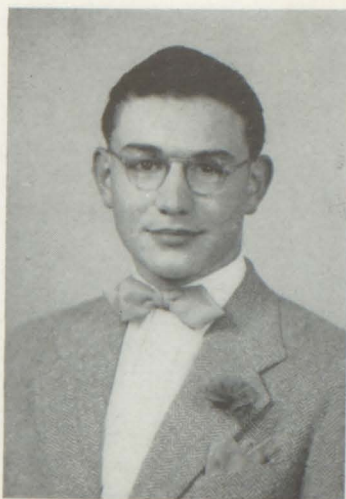

ROBERT P. CLEMENS

Bob, the Harry James of the senior class, was one of our most faithful band and orchestra members. His personality and sense of humor made him a popular lad.

Seniors

GEORGE F. DANCIU JR.

George's "never say die" spirit was a legend of the class. Besides being one of the better scholars, he was an accomplished musician and a participant in most of the school's activities. His fellow classmates voted him the most likely to succeed.

C. NANCY GLEASON

The three "V's", vim, vigor, and vitality, were possessions of this vivacious gal. Nan put her all into everything she did. On the dance floor and in basketball she was much in demand.

DAVID R. DE LONG

New this year, Dick immediately won a place for himself in the class. He delighted the girls of C.F.H.S. with his dark curly hair, dazzling smile, and expert rug cutting.

Seniors --- ---

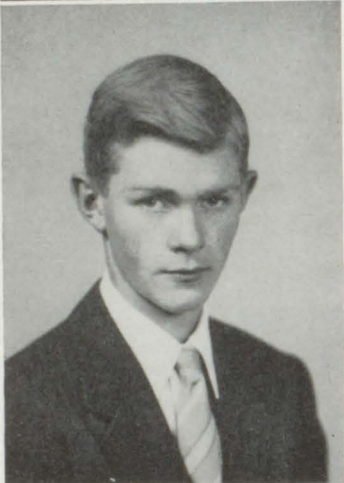

HOWARD H. FAST

Todd will best be remembered for his excellent performance on the stage. But his journalistic aspirations did not go unappreciated, and his clever remarks were the high point of many a day. Action always followed Todd's words.

JEANNE K. HENSLEY

Always on the go, no favor was too great or too small for Jeanne to perform. Her helping hand was lent to the Zenith Staff in the capacity of typist.

THOMAS M. GAINES

Tom's shy smile fooled many an unsuspecting teacher, for his friendly exterior belied the fact that there was usually something devilish brewing in his brain. His popularity was increased by the fact that he could be counted upon to drive to any sporting event that was away from home.

Seniors

ALBERT C. HOOPES

"Hooper" had the distinction of being the tallest boy in the school. A fun loving lad, his sense of humor, although fully appreciated by the student body, frequently had him in trouble with the faculty.

BETTY LOU IMARS

When all was serene and peaceful in class, the spell could be broken with one of Betty Lou's "witty" remarks. She turned Thespian with her portrayal of Lill Bird in the Senior Play.

CURTIS H. JONES

Curley, with his flame colored hair and hobo-like shuffle, was a great favorite with everyone. A handy man to have around when there was work to be done, he especially proved his worth as a stagehand for our junior and senior plays.

Seniors = = = = •

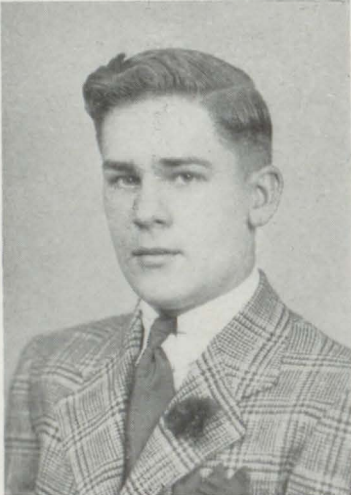

WILLIAM KACHELE

Bill was an exponent of "variety is the spice of life", especially when it came to girls. His scrappy spirit was at its best on the gridiron.

BETTY J. KENNEDY

Though short in stature, Betty was long on good nature. She could always be depended upon to laugh at a joke, and it was her merry laughter that won her so many friends.

ELMER L. KOLM

Elmer was the typing wizard and speed demon of the third period typing class. One of the quieter members of the class of "44", Elmer was most at home in the shop.

Seniors

LOUIS KULSCAR

A lanky frame and a bashful grin characterized Louie. Usually quiet and slow moving, he played a fast and spirited game on the gridiron and basketball court. Louie, unfortunately, was not able to attend graduation exercises, since he answered Uncle Sam's "Call to the colors" in January.

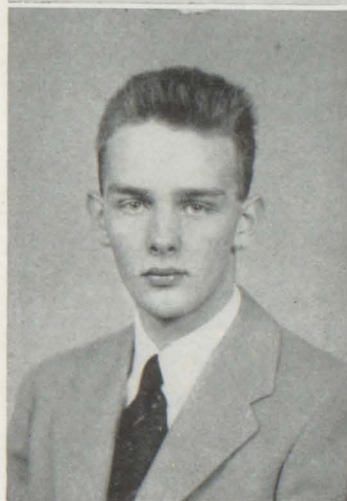

JEAN E. LAMBERT

Dark brown hair with eyes to match marked this petite lass. Her taste in clothes won her the title of being the best dressed girl. Many a committee was blessed with Jean's clever ideas and capable guidance.

ROBERT E. SELLECK

"Otis" was one of the more brilliant members of our class. He always had an answer—right or wrong—for Mr. Casebolt in Physics. Bob is slated for the Army Air Corps sometime next fall.

Seniors

JAMES H. STANTON

Jim, good humor man of the class, was also our man-about-town. Aside from keeping his fellow students in a jovial mood, Jim did a really fine job on the stage in two plays and an operetta

GERALDINE I. LOWE

Gerry was the lass of a thousand and one duties. She could always be depended upon to take care of all the details that no one else found time to do. Much of her time was spent with out-of-town beaux.

DOUGLAS M. STONE

Science was undeniably Doug's chief interest. His desk was usually cluttered with some complicated looking scientific apparatus. However, his promising career will probably be postponed until after the war, since the armed forces beckon.

Seniors

HARRY J. STRATTON, JR.

Tall, dark, and handsome, Jim was the lad responsible for the Zenith sketches as well as much of the school's art work. His good looks made many an admiring female heave a sigh.

LUCILLE STEPHENS

One of the quieter members of the class, Lucy possessed one of those traits which are essential, that of being attentive without being a "busy-body". Although her romantic interests were not in the school, she found time to make friends with many members of the class.

QUENTIN E. WHITE

Bill, with his "heinie" haircut and rolled up trousers, was our typical "Harry High School." He could usually be found dashing about in his Ford coupe.

Seniors

JEANNE V. SCHANCK

Inclined to be a little cynical at times, Jeanne, another newcomer this year, was the youngest member of the class. Taking part in the senior play, she soon became one of the "gang".

WAYNE C. WILSON

Wayne, together with his "side-kick" Lynn, was responsible for most of the devilment in senior home room. His ready smile brightened many gloomy days, and his size made him one of our most valuable gifts to the football squad.

Class Flower:
Yellow Rose

Class Motto:
Victory!

Seniors

WANDA SHELTON

Tiny, but terrific, Wanda maintained the title of "Powerhouse" throughout high school. Her excellent basketball and her flippant remarks made her a valuable asset to the class.

LOIS A. WING

Happy-go-lucky Lois took everything in her stride, letting nothing bother her. She was best known on the dance floor, where her antics made her the life of many a party.

Class Colors:
Maroon and Gold

Class Motto:
Victory!

History

Well, there it is. The history of the class of '44 written in twelve volumes, is completed. Included in these volumes are accounts of thrilling battles on the athletic fields, brilliance in the class rooms, and fun and gaiety at the many social events offered by C. F. H. S.

In Volume X is an account of the first of three successful dances given by the class of '44. Volumes XI and XII tell of the two plays given by this class. Also in Volume XII we find a section devoted to the football championship in which the seniors played a large part. Volume IX shows that the senior class started its high school career with fifty-four members. The last chapter of the last volume reveals that there are only thirty-two of the "gang" left.

Volume number thirteen, not yet written, should prove the most interesting reading of all, since it will deal with the future of the seniors in a war-torn and troubled world. But, we feel that the training we have received at C. F. H. S. will make us equal to whatever tasks are set before us.

Prophecy

It is May the 19th, 1954, when we find the Senior Class of 1944 gathered at Metropolitan Park for the first of a series of reunions to be held every decade. The main topic of conversation is whether or not Mrs. Roosevelt should have a third term.

First of all our attention is attracted to David "Filibuster" Draz, the greatest orator of the day, who is giving a soapbox oratory on the danger of inflation, seeing as how the price of "coke" has gone up to eleven dollars a case.

Richard Clemens, now the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, is still trying to collect Charlie Benbow's class dues for the fiscal years of 1940 to 1944. Charlie is willing to pay off Dick with a free course in his Charles Atlas Correspondence School.

Lynn Sprague, "The Wall Street Wonder," is trying hard to get Nancy Gleason to invest in the "Pee-Chee Shoe Cleaner Syndicate." Nancy, wisely enough, is investing all of her savings in her own voice developing school.

Bob Selleck, the only one in the Army Air Corps, credited with having downed thirty-five planes, all American, has just made a perfect one point crash landing on the shelter house roof. Bert Hoopes, of the "Lay Away for the Future Funeral Company," is standing by, ready to meet all emergencies, whether blonde or brunette.

Frances Hine, Editor-in-Chief of the Death Valley Oasis, has been trying to get an interview with Robert Clemens, the only scientific farmer in captivity. Bob has just crossed lima beans with sweet corn so you can have succotash on the cob.

Wanda Shelton, currently featured laugh artiste on Hermit's Cave, seems to be having quite some difficulty in obtaining an appointment at Betty Kennedy's beauty shoppe. Betty's motto is, "If your sweetheart doesn't recognize your present beauty, let me do you over and nobody will recognize it."

Jim Stratton, the Rudolph Valentino of Wonder Pictures, has just finished the "Life and Memoirs of Don Ameche." Jim Stanton, President of Wonder Pictures, says, "If it's a good one, it's a Wonder!"

George Danciu, one of the greatest surgeons of all time, has just finished taking the "appendix" out of his dictionary. Gerry Lowe, his not too private secretary, is just finishing the epitaph of their last case.

Winifred Dunton, in the midst of writing her first book, "What to Do in Case of Another Man-Power Shortage," is trying to get some information about the male animal from Walter Burnett. However "Walt" isn't very informed on the subject since he has been the President of Vassar School for Girls for the past eight years.

Todd Fast, owner of the Fast and Furious Escort Bureau, is trying to find a date for Pat Colvin. Pat is now head costume designer for Earl Carrol's Vanities. "She saves so much material!"

Lois Wing has just recently returned from her third expedition to the Belgian Congo where she has been selling wholesale lipstick to the Ubangis. Betty Imars, Lois's companion adventuress, came back by way of Algiers where she hoped to find Charles Boyer.

Dick "Leadfoot" De Long is having a wonderful time running the Madame LaZonga Dancing Studios. Right now he is talking to Bill Kachele, the only professional hockey player, who, in ten years, has not scored a goal.

Wayne Wilson's diving abilities are a great asset to the Deep Sea Oyster Farms. His only difficulty is that of coming up. Jeanne Hensley, general sales manager for the John Deere Tractor Co., has just found out that you don't use garden tractors in oyster farming. She loses more tractors that way.

Bill White, by some strange quirk of fate, is still collecting royalties from the White Motor Car Co. Tom Gaines, a noted criminal lawyer, will handle Bill's case as soon as he finishes his last, that of Gaines versus the State.

Lucille Stephens, working for the War Department, is selling military secrets for $20 apiece or two for $35. Her latest communique has it that Louis Kulscar is sitting up with a sick pigeon.

Jeanne Schanck is trying to explain to Curtis Jones why she has been unable, as yet, to disprove Einstein's Theory of Relativity, while Curtis has been attempting to explain how he has made such a rapid rise from elevator boy to the managership of the Empire State Building.

Professor Douglas Stone says that he will have to ask for volunteers to man his first rocket to the moon. So far he has been able only to obtain the services of Elmer Kolm as chief helper to the assistant motorman.

Miss Elsa Carroll, after seeing the Class of "44" graduate, went directly to her rest lodge in the Himalayas Mountains and has not yet returned.

Lastly, we come upon one of our most indispensable classmates, Jean Lambert, who is working as the head timekeeper of the Union Pacific Railroad Company. In all her years with the road there have never been more than two wrecks in one day.

And so we leave the class of "44" for today. Will Dick get his money from Charlie; will Professor Stone find enough men for his crew; will George finish his next case in time for Frances to print? Who knows? We don't!

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred forty-four, being of sound mind and body and having arrived at the peak of perfection, do hereby proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

Article I. To the Juniors we do will and bequeath our beloved advisor Elsa Jane Carroll in hopes that she will be able to do more with them than she did with us.

Article II. To the Sophomores we do will and bequeath our English term papers to enable them to lead a happy life.

Article III. To the Freshmen we do will and bequeath our old inter-class permits, since they are so hard to get.

Article IV. To the school as a whole we do will and bequeath our unprecedented abilities—!

Sec. 1. Charles Benbow does will and bequeath his manly physique to Keith Smith.

Sec. 2. Walter Burnett does will and bequeath his fatal charm over the ladies to Lyndall Gresham.

Sec. 3. Richard Clemens does will and bequeath his amazing ability for catching on to jokes to David Griffith.

Sec. 4. Robert Clemens does will and bequeath his smooth basketball playing to Henry Johnson.

Sec. 5. Patricia Colvin does will and bequeath her size $39\frac{3}{4}$ hips to Jo Ann Spielhaupter.

Sec. 6. George Danciu does will and bequeath his amazing study habits to little brother "Corney," with hopes.

Sec. 7. Richard DeLong does will and bequeath his dark curly locks to Jim Brower.

Sec. 8. David Draz does will and bequeath his starting position on the Chagrin forward line to Forest Felger.

Sec. 9. Winifred Dunton does will and bequeath her quiet manner to Norma Felger.

Sec. 10. Todd Fast does will and bequeath his one arm driving experience to Don Peterson.

Sec. 11. Tom Gaines does will and bequeath his unlimited supply of automobiles to Hugh Van Beattie.

Sec. 12. Nancy Gleason does will and bequeath her leather "mitts" to all basketball bystanders in order that they may be more easily heard.

Sec. 13. Jeanne Hensley does will and bequeath her straight A's in music to Jack Skeel.

Sec. 14. Frances Hine does will and bequeath her ability to get into everything to Betty Lou Shelton.

Sec. 15. Bert Hoopes does will and bequeath his ability to look over women's hats in the picture show to George Kimpel.

Sec. 16. Betty Imars does will and bequeath her third degree technique at asking questions to Ann Kaserman.

Sec. 17. Curtis Jones does will and bequeath his seat in front of Miss Carroll's desk to anyone who wants it.

Sec. 18. Bill Kachele does not will and bequeath anything of his, he needs it all.

Sec. 19. Betty Kennedy does will and bequeath her blushing bride technique to Xenil Jefferson.

Sec. 20. Elmer Kolm does will and bequeath his mechanical abilities to Marian Stoneman.

Sec. 21. Louis Kulscar does will and bequeath one of his homing pigeons to Carol Duffey in hopes that she can keep in closer communication.

Sec. 22. Jean Lambert does will and bequeath her undisputed title of being the last one to come up the high school walk in the morning to Elton Root, who will get it anyway.

Sec. 23. Geraldine Lowe does will and bequeath her walk to the Pop Corn Shop to Beatrice Sindelar.

Sec. 24. Jean Schanck does will and bequeath her straight A's in "trig" to Ralph Miller.

Sec. 25. Robert Selleck does will and bequeath his smooth line to Don Britton.

Sec. 26. Wanda Shelton does will and bequeath her short stature to Betty Tuttle.

Sec. 27. Lynn Sprague does will and bequeath his scholastic records to Tom Reed.

Sec. 28. Jim Stanton does will and bequeath his poker playing ability to Mary Stephan.

Sec. 29. Lucille Stephens does will and bequeath her long walk out Russell Road to anyone who wants it.

Sec. 30. Douglas Stone does will and bequeath his wide scientific knowledge to Don Lumme.

Sec. 31. Jim Stratton does will and bequeath his piano practicing to Mrs. Richman.

Sec. 32. Bill White does will and bequeath his large hair comb to Zeke Marriot.

Sec. 33. Wayne Wilson does will and bequeath his rapid rise on the social ladder to Fred Martell.

Sec. 34. Lois Wing does will and bequeath her unique rug cutting antics to Patty Crain.

FIRST ROW: MacRitchie, Danciu, Brower, Esry.

Sophomores

NOW that the door has been closed on our tenth year in Chagrin Falls High School, we pause to reflect upon the many obstacles encountered and overcome by the class of '46 on their way to the top rung of the scholastic ladder.

The vigor and vitality displayed by the class in early years was, at times, trying to faculty, but nevertheless these traits have helped to contribute to the class' success.

Mrs. Richman and Miss Dates, our most recent advisors, deserve a great deal of credit for the assistance they have rendered us.

OFFICERS

JIM BROWER	President
CORNEL DANCIU	Vice-President
JACK MACRITCHIE	Secretary
GEORGE ESRY	Treasurer

THERE entered, eight years ago, into Chagrin Falls School a group of fifty-eight timid souls who had come to start on the great adventure of learning.

The would-be freshmen are elated and yet sorrowful over the fact that the fruitful knowledge of another year has been reaped and harvested.

BACK ROW: Nelisse, Wallace, Clark, Taylor, Wood. SEVENTH ROW: Kruse, Campbell, Stephens, Cubberly, Aldefer, Arnold, Plazak. SIXTH ROW: Heberlein, Stem, White, Ditmer, Sparrow, Imhoff. FIFTH ROW: Rohrman, Picking, Scott, Martell, Peterson. FOURTH ROW: Lewis, Tilton, Ritchig, Kaserman, Wallace, Minor, Lake. THIRD ROW: Carpenter, Hills, Fischer, Schroeder, Ralston, Edwards, Best. SECOND ROW: Miss Neff, Carleton, Davidson, Stratton, Hladik, Whitlam, Melbourne, Metzko, Miss Wilkison. FIRST ROW: Dunton, Bender, Smith, Dobson, White, Davis, Babcock.

7th Grade

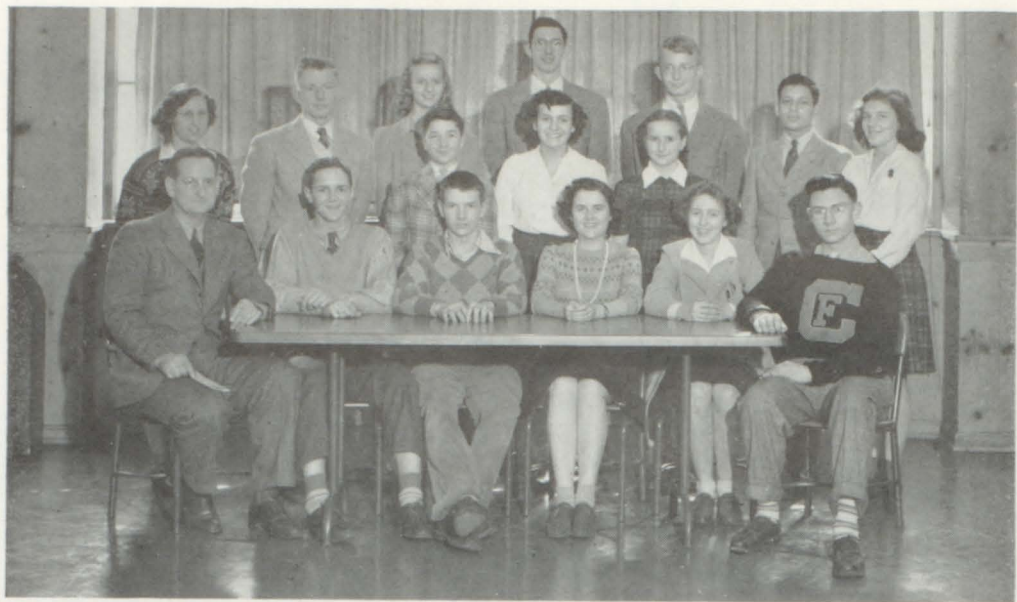

SEVEN years ago a group of small boys and girls trudged off to school.

Under the guidance of many different teachers the class finally reached its Junior High goal. There Miss Neff has taken care of us.

From the experiences of this past year, we hope to accomplish better things in the years that follow.

ACTIVITIES

BACK ROW: Crotty, H. Beattie, Spielhaupter, Hoopes, Peterson, Miraglia, Tilton.
 SECOND ROW: Hatch, Felger, Henry. FRONT ROW: Mr. Gurney, Stanton, Sprague,
 P. Beattie, Briggs, Fast.

Student Council

THIS year saw the re-establishment of student government in Chagrin Falls School. Election for members was held at the beginning of the year, and the various officers were chosen from this group. The revised constitution was put before the high school assembly and ratified. So far the organization has run very smoothly and promises to be a great success in the following years.

OFFICERS

LYNN SPRAGUE	President
JIM STANTON	Vice-President

FRONT ROW: Miss Dates, Hensley, Danciu, Lowe, Sprague, Duffy, Fast, Selleck, Wing, Lambert, Colvin, Miss Hammond.

Echo Staff

THROUGHOUT the past year the Echo Staff has contributed generously to the reading enjoyment of the townspeople through their weekly offerings to the Echo page in the Exponent.

During the first semester, Todd Fast and Carol Duffy edited the Echo. Second Semester Jerry Finch and Pat Crain took over and did a fine job as editor and assistant editor.

Miss I. V. Dates and Miss I. A. Hammond served as advisors for the staff.

BACK ROW: Peterson, Briggs, MacSpadden, Burnett, Bowe, Kaserman, Schanck, Beattie, Finch. FRONT ROW: Danciu, Miss Carroll, Selleck, Crain, Sprague.

Honor Society

MEMBERSHIP in the Honor Society is determined by a student's scholarship, character, and ability; the main stress being on high scholarship. It was first started in Chagrin Falls in 1934 by Mr. D. M. Rice, and it is now continuing under the leadership of Miss E. J. Carroll.

After the first meeting this year all the members bought pins. To make money the club has had the cloakroom concession at the dances.

OFFICERS

G. A. A.

THE aim of G.A.A. is to create friendship and sportsmanship among its members.

Besides their schedule of intramural sports, an all-star basketball team was picked to play the alumnae.

The girls staged their annual banquet and dance in the Spring.

Senior Play

ON December 8, 1943, the Senior Class of Chagrin Falls High School presented "The Eve of St. Mark" by Maxwell Anderson.

This play is based on the emotions of a modern American family during events typical of war. Life at home and at the battle front are intermingled with surprising dexterity in the story of Quizz West. The gaiety and, simultaneously, the sobriety that modern Army youth displays when faced by the crisis of war, show the American fighting men giving their best on the battle front.

The cast turned in a fine performance of this human, down to earth, story.

SPORTS

LEFT TO RIGHT: Mr. Sands, Benbow, Mr. Jones, Lumme, Mr. Gurney.

Athletic Association

THIS year Charles Benbow and Don Lumme were elected by the student body to serve on the Athletic Board.

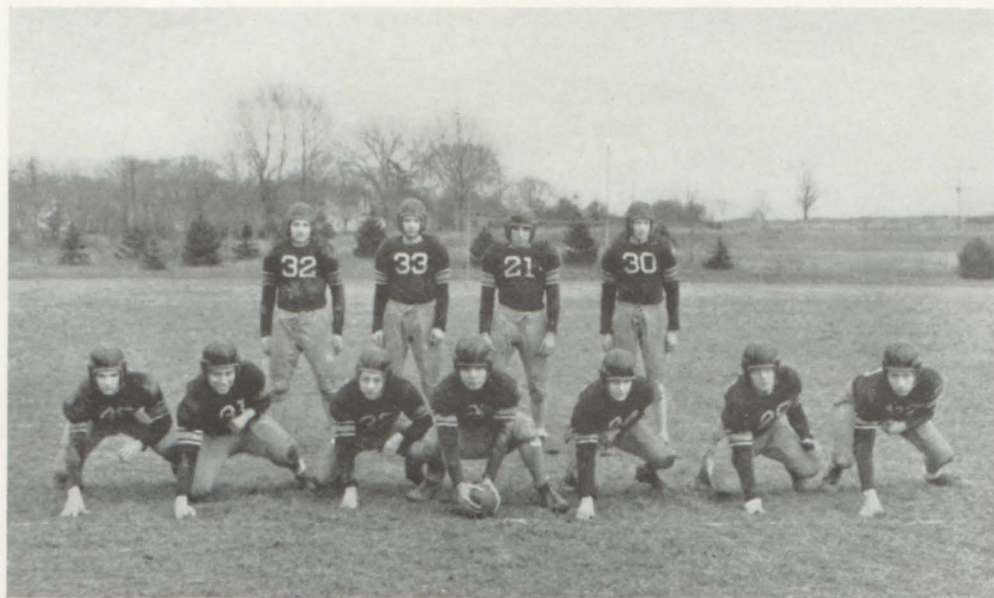

It is the duty of this board to purchase equipment and determine the athletic policy of the school.

Football Squad

THIS year's varsity was formed with nine letter-men from last year, but many new names were added to its roster. The scrappy Skippies got off to a wonderful start with no defeats in the first half of the season, but, riddled by injuries, dropped three of their last four games. However, the Skippies with their fight, spirit, and courage won their second championship in five years of membership in the Western Reserve League. The caliber of the Chagrinites' play was reflected by the fact that five players were awarded positions on the All-Star team.

Trophies

EACH year the football champions of the Western Reserve League receive two trophies. One is retained permanently; the other is passed on from year to year to each new championship team. For the second time in the league's five year existence, Chagrin claimed title to the trophies.

Coach took an inexperienced team with only eight letter men and developed it into his second championship team since Chagrin entered the Western Reserve League. The boys really enjoyed working for Coach, and may he have continued success in the coming years.

Lettermen

JIM STANTON—End

In one year Jim developed from an inexperienced end to a veteran meriting a place on the league All-Star team. Jim was a scoring threat whose snagging of passes gave Chagrin many a first down.

LYNN SPRAGUE—Quarterback

Lynn, as a ball carrier, was very hard to stop, and as a linebacker he was almost impossible to get by. An indefatigable player, he never stopped going till the whistle blew.

CHARLES BENBOW—Captain—Quarterback

"Captain Charlie", the only four-letter man this year, provided much of Chagrin's offense. Although he was injured twice, Charlie continued his string of consecutive games to 32—every game in his high school career. He did most of the plunging, passing, and kicking, and was awarded a first string berth on the league All-Star team.

BOB CROWEL—Halfback

Bob, who won a place in the starting line-up in his first year out for football, was outstanding as a blocker and pass-receiver. He should be responsible for a lot of next year's success.

TODD FAST—End

This was the first year for Howard, a senior end. Although green at first, he developed into a hard tackling end, who really stopped those end runs. Coach will be hard-pressed to fill his uniform next year.

Lettermen

HUGH BEATTIE—Tackle

This was the second letter for Hugh, who was the bulwark of the left side of the line. He was not often moved by heavier opponents and will undoubtedly be the backbone of next year's line.

WALTER BURNETT—Guard

Another watch-charm guard who earned his first letter was "Breeze". Although always opposite a heavier opponent, he was a hard man to move.

BILL KACHELE—Guard

One of the smallest players on the squad, "Wee Willie" astounded heavier opponents with his tackling and blocking. Next year's eleven will miss his fight and spirit.

FRED LOWE—Guard

Although only a junior, Fred was one of the heaviest guards on the team. Still he was always outweighed by the opponents. He can be depended upon to hold up his share of the line next year.

BOB SELLECK—Guard, Tackle

A letterman end last year, "Otis" played guard and tackle with equal facility. He was willing to play anywhere, and no matter where he played, he played hard and for keeps.

Lettermen

GEORGE DANCIU—Fullback, Halfback

George's vicious tackling will long be remembered by Chagrin fans as well as by opposing players. A hard runner, he played well either as a fullback or as a halfback. He won his second letter this year.

ARTHUR MARRIOTT—Manager

"Zeke" was as responsible for those victories as any player on the field. It was he who was stuck with the dirty work: tending equipment, liming the field, giving the rubdowns, taping the players, and numerous other jobs. Zeke was there, raring to go, rain or shine.

DON LUMME—Halfback

"Don of the long blonde hair" and the long runs astounded Madison and Wickliffe when he broke away for eighty yard runs. He was one of Chagrin's great scoring threats and should run wild over his opponents next year.

JOE HUBBARD—End, Halfback

Joe, a freshman, is well on his way to becoming a four-letter man. He gained valuable experience this year, both as an end and a backfield man, which will help him out considerably next year.

LOUIS KULSCAR—End

Another first year man and also an end was "Louie". He was a good blocker and good on defense.

Lettermen

WAYNE WILSON—Tackle

Although hampered all year by a bad knee, Wayne missed only one game due to injuries. He was awarded his second varsity letter and a place on the second All-Star team.

DAVE DRAZ—Center

This is the second CF for Dave. Although he played guard last year, he developed into a center worthy of the place on the second All-Star team. His chatter and spirit kept up the team's morale at all times.

FRED MARTELL—Quarterback

Fred, one of the few southpaw backs in Chagrin's history, saw much action in the latter part of the season and will be one of next year's starters.

DICK DE LONG—Halfback, Tackle

Dick's speed and weight enabled him to perform equally well on the line or in the backfield. His play was somewhat curtailed in the last part of the season by a wrenched back.

ELTON ROOT—Guard

"Percy", another first year man, made good in the last half of the season. He played a stellar game against W.R.A., and he should be an integral part of next year's line.

Football Games

Chagrin 0—Mayfield 0

Chagrin held a highly touted Mayfield eleven to a scoreless tie in the opening game on the local gridiron. The Skippies dominated the play but could not score.

Chagrin 14—Madison 12

Under the lights for the first time, the Skippies toppled Madison in their first league game. After giving up two touchdowns in the first quarter, Chagrin tallied in the second and last quarters on an eighty yard run by Lumme and a line plunge by Benbow.

Chagrin 7—Wickliffe 0

Gaining their second league triumph in as many starts, Chagrin dumped Wickliffe; Benbow scoring all the points. Lumme ran 85 yards, but Chagrin couldn't tally again.

Chagrin 0—Chardon 0

A gallant goal line stand by the Skippies in the closing minutes of play kept a defeat off the records. Although they drove to the Hilltoppers' fifteen yard line on three occasions, the Skippies couldn't score.

Chagrin 0—W. R. A. 13

Playing on a muddy field, the Skippies went down to defeat for the first time, before a heavier and overpowering foe. The Academy tallied in the second and last quarters on runs by Mooney.

Chagrin 9—Perry 6

The Skippies won their second Western Reserve League championship when they dropped the Perry Pirates. Stanton snagged a pass, and Sprague plunged for the extra point to tally for Chagrin in the third quarter. Perry scored in the final quarter, and Chagrin ended the scoring with a safety in the closing minutes.

Chagrin 0—Hudson 21

Chagrin went down to defeat for the first time on their home gridiron when Hudson overpowered them. The Skippies were hampered by the absence of Wilson, and Benbow played only briefly.

Chagrin 0—Orange 30

For the third straight year the Skippies were humbled by the Orange Lions. Playing on a snow-covered field, the Skippies couldn't get rolling in the last game of the season and the last one for the seniors.

Varsity Squad

ALTHOUGH slow-starting, the Skippies ended the season with a won-and-lost record of twelve-six. Having lost their first league contests, the Skippies swept their last three league games to finish third in the League. One of these encounters resulted in the only League defeat of the year for the champions, Wickliffe.

BACK ROW: Coach Gurney, D. Clemens, Hoopes, De Long, Burnett, Marriott. FRONT ROW: Fast, Lumme, Benbow, Crowel, Sprague, R. Clemens.

Lettermen

CHARLES BENBOW—Forward, Captain

Charlie, in addition to being one of the three members to hit the century mark in scoring, played a flawless floor game. He was awarded his second letter and a position on the second All-League team.

DON LUMME—Forward

Don, the team's leading scorer, was marked by his speed, agility, and marksmanship. He was picked on the All-League and All-Tournament teams in this, his first year on the varsity.

BOB CROWEL—Center

Bob, a dead-shot on his longs, was Don's running mate. He was a constant scoring threat and reached his peak in mid-season as Russell and Mayfield will long remember. A very close runner-up in scoring, Bob held the lead until the last three games.

LYNN SPRAGUE—Guard

Starting the season at forward, Lynn was switched to guard when Louis Kulscar left the squad. Here he could be counted on to turn in a sterling defensive game and was a good enough offense man to capture high scoring honors in two games.

T. C. GURNEY—Coach

Coach's ability to turn out winning teams proved no exception this year. With his patience and guidance, the Chagrin High Cagers turned in a commendable record for the 43-44 season.

RICHARD CLEMENS—Forward

Although he played part of the season on the "B" team, Dick made enough appearances on the varsity line-up to be awarded his letter.

TODD FAST—Guard

Todd, although not a high scorer, was a key defense player. Adept at ball-handling, he got most of the balls off the back-board.

ROBERT CLEMENS—Guard—Center

Missing five games because of a broken leg, Bob, nevertheless, was one of the two players winning his second letter in basketball. He could be depended upon to fill the gap at either center or guard equally well.

ARTHUR MARRIOTT—Manager

When things needed to be done, Art was always there to do them. He cared for equipment, kept score, ran in with towels, and worried more about the team than anyone else.

LOUIS KULSCAR—Guard

Louie, who entered the Army in January, appeared in only six games. But, in these his ability to sink long shots and recover the ball from under the basket made his presence sorely missed in the latter part of the season.

Basketball

FOR the third time in four years the Skippies qualified for the tournament at Kent. This year Chagrin received this honor by defeating Mayfield and Orange in the tournament at Orange. However, after entering the semi-finals at Kent on a bye, they were defeated by Columbiana who went on to sweep the tournament at Kent.

Chagrin 28—Brush 27

The Skippies opened their season with a victory over Brush. Behind all the way Chagrin took the lead on Lumme's two baskets in the last minutes. Lumme's thirteen points were tops.

Kirtland 28—Chagrin 21

Kirtland, the defending champs, dropped Chagrin on the home court. Crowel led the losers with six points in our first league defeat.

Mayfield 30—Chagrin 20

The second straight loss on the home floor was to Mayfield. Reynolds tallied fifteen points for Mayfield while Benbow's seven topped Chagrin's scoring.

Perry 38—Chagrin 37

Chagrin lost a thriller to Perry for its third straight defeat. Lumme and Crowel tallied twenty-eight points.

Chagrin 30—Bainbridge 19

Lumme and Benbow scored nine points each to lead the Skippies to an easy victory over Bainbridge at Bainbridge.

Chagrin 40—Madison 15

The Skippies won their first league game as they trounced Madison. Benbow and Crowel meshed ten points each.

Chagrin 40—Orange 34

The Skippies tamed the Lions' roar as they downed a favored Orange quintet by six points. Don Lumme's thirteen points topped both teams in this rough and tumble game.

Chagrin 29—Chardon 26

The Skippies won their fourth straight as they edged the Hilltoppers in a league game. Sprague's twelve points led the field.

Chagrin 41—Wickliffe 30

Lumme's twelve points led Chagrin to an upset victory over Wickliffe. Crowel, with eleven points, was second in Chagrin's scoring, while Brunetti tallied fifteen for the losers.

Orange 36—Chagrin 34

The Skippies dropped a heart-breaker to the boys from down Orange-way. Crowel and Lumme marked up twelve points each, while Bright led the Lions with sixteen.

Chagrin 40—Russell 14

The Skippies trounced Russell in an independent game on Chagrin's court. Crowel outscored Russell with seventeen points.

Chagrin 35—Mayfield 28

Paced by Bob Crowel's eighteen points, the Skippies avenged an early season defeat by the Wildcats. Crowel's thirty-five point total for two games was a high for the season.

Chagrin 43—Bainbridge 17

The Skippies trounced Bainbridge for the second time this season. Bob Crowel tallied eleven points to take the scoring honors.

Chagrin 29—Solon 27

Lynn Sprague's sixteen points led the Skippies to a thrilling victory over the Blue and White of Solon.

Russell 30—Chagrin 26

Chagrin's tournament hopes took a jolt as the Russell quintet gained revenge for a mid-season drubbing. Although the Skippies threatened in the final quarter, Russell was never behind.

Chagrin 29—Mayfield 18

Taking a 20-3 lead at halftime, the Skippies coasted to a victory in the first round of the tournament at Orange, with Lumme hitting the nets for fourteen markers.

Chagrin 31—Orange 23

Ahead all the way, the Skippies scored a decisive victory over the Lions to qualify for the district tournament at Kent. Lumme tallied nineteen points for a two-night total of thirty-three.

Columbiana 46—Chagrin 25

The Skippies, baffled by Columbiana's extra height, were dropped in their first game at Kent. Behind 26 to 6 at halftime, the Skippies fought on even terms through the second half with Bob Crowel contributing eight of his twelve points.

BACK ROW: Coach Gurney, Rood, Reed, White, Sindelar, Hileman, Briggs, Marriott.

"B" Team

THE "B" team forms the nucleus of next year's varsity and this year's substitutes. They are the fellows that get the hard knocks but not much of the glory. It is their duty to scrimmage the varsity, and their rivalry with the "A" team spurred both teams on to better playing.

This year the "B" team was led by a freshman, junior, and senior in scoring. They lost in a championship game to Kirtland, and finished with a record of ten victories and six losses, for the year.

In these days of wartime restrictions you may be asked to accept something "JUST AS GOOD". We here at Brewster and Stroud will not jeopardize our reputation of years of standing by offering these substitutes. There may be times when you'll not find just what you want. Rest assured, the furniture you see on our floors is of the same high quality as in the days before furniture craftsmen went to building planes, boats, and other war MATERIEL.
