The Senior Class Presents
the 1959 . . .

Foreword . . .

I do not presume that this foreward will be read by you for at least twenty years. Or, if you do happen to glance at it some time this year, then perhaps the few things that I have to say might stir you to wonder--just a little.

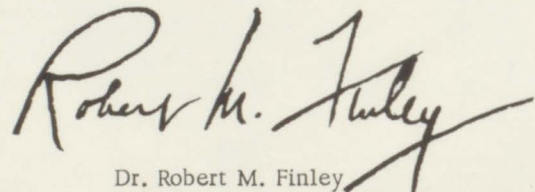

Many from your class will be headed for college, some will go into the service, and still others will be entering the working world. Each venture is important. A person becomes educated in whichever field he chooses, whether he enters college or digs a ditch. The important thing is to be a good student or dig a good ditch--the best that your capabilities will permit.

Our country has entered the race for survival with another power of the world. Only the future will tell whether we are strong enough to live with this power or be subjugated by it. The handwriting is on the wall and the challenge is in evidence throughout Russia--"Reach and Surpass America." We chose to ignore Hitler's warning in MEIN KAMPF until it was almost too late. Will YOU choose to ignore the Russian threat?

America's hope lies with you--its youth. Only through you and your capacities of enthusiasm, desire, and pride can this country continue to lead the free world. You and other 1959 graduates MUST meet the challenge.

Don't let John do it! Check your inventory and see how you stack up when it comes to Pride, Use of Time, Desire, Goals, and Values.

This foreword is not meant to be a lecture. I hope you don't take it as such. Instead, if we of the faculty of your high school have tended to inspire you to take a step toward doing your very best in life, then we have succeeded. May you do the same.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Robert M. Finley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Dr. Robert M. Finley
Superintendent of Schools

Miss Kathryn E. Warner

Dedication . . .

In the three years you have been with us, you have demonstrated your outstanding teaching ability and your frank honesty both in and out of the classroom. We remember how, in past years, you have rescued many of us from the mathematical oblivion into which we had unfortunately stumbled. And we remember the help and guidance you have given us as advisor to the Y-Teens last year and this year to our Student Council. Each of us has some memory of you: Your familiar face as you stand beside the door to Room 9; your insistence on having things done the right way; or the quick honest replies you always had for our questions. Now, with these and many other memories in our minds, we dedicate this 1959 ZENITH to you.

In Memoriam

Regis P. Mourier

A man whom we all knew and respected passed away on December 13 of this our Senior Year. That man was Regis Mourier, High School Guidance Counselor and Junior High School Principal. Somewhere along the line he had done something for each one of us, whether it was a friendly word of advice about our future or an interpretation of a test which told us what we could and couldn't expect of ourselves. He was a man great with sincerity and a genuine love for the teaching profession. This page is dedicated in tribute to the tall man whose passing shocked and saddened us all.

Student Council

Your Student Council is one of the most important organizations in school life. It is the voice of the students, the median between the faculty and the student body. Your class representatives try to represent your ideas and feelings as well as they are able to do. All students are encouraged to attend Student Council meetings to familiarize themselves with the workings of the organization.

National Honor Society

OFFICERS

Mary Lee President
Richard Stillman Vice-President
Julie Hill Secretary-Treasurer
Elsa Jane Carroll Advisor

Scholarship, character, leadership, and service are the attributes necessary for membership in the Honor Society. Throughout the year, the group enjoys hearing prominent speakers, an annual banquet, and an evening at the Playhouse. One of the most enlightening events of the year is the recognition of new members who will be gaining the greatest honor which can be bestowed on a student.

Y-Teens

OFFICERS

President	Julie Hill
Vice President	Mary Lynn Vincent
Treasurer	Sue Tenny
Secretary	Barb Hill
Service Chairman	Claudia Mayner
Social Chairmen	Sandy Yerke Pat Barriball
Worship Chairman	Nancy Clark
Advisor	Mrs. Maus

The aim of the Y-Teens organization is to promote service, leadership, and Christian fellowship. Our projects this year have included making Thanksgiving tray favors for Windsor Hospital patients and sponsoring the annual Christmas formal. A major revision in our Constitution this year boosted the membership to over one hundred girls in grades ten through twelve. New members were recognized in an impressive service held in mid-February.

Sandy Yerke is the proud Queen of the Christmas Formal while Pat Barriball, Julie Hill, and Jacqui Bauman are her attendants.

Advisor Mr. Robert Jones

Key Club has tried to live up to its goal of being a service club to the school and community. In addition to our regular projects, such as the weekly activities bulletin board, keeping football and basketball statistics, and promoting good school spirit through our members, we undertook such projects as the World Clothing Week Drive, a campaign to support the teams and revitalize school spirit, and the November Ballot Battalion. We hope by this and by our meetings and participation in conventions of Key Club International to develop into better citizens and to grow in friendship with all people.

Tiger Rag

Claudia Mayner	Editor
Betty Ricker	Assistant Editors
Kathy Alcorn
Mrs. Coates	Advisor

This year the Tiger Rag, edited by a volunteer staff, was a monthly publication. With the aid of the Chagrin Valley Herald, we were able to have the paper printed out of school. As a result we extended our sales to the grade schools and have been able to sell about six hundred copies each month.

Through the paper, the voice of the students of our high school and grade schools have been transmitted to many other schools in Northern Ohio, and to the folks at home around Chagrin.

Falls Art Club

Meta Strick President
 Pete Warner Vice President
 Pearl Bayless Secretary

The Art Club is designed to create interest in different areas of art not usually covered in class periods. About once a month a speaker from the Chagrin Falls area comes to the meeting to acquaint the members with new ideas, or to show them special art work. Field trips are taken, one always to the Cleveland Museum of Art, another to the Regional Scholastic Art show at Halle's. The Art Club is truly worthwhile to any interested student.

Falls Footlighters

OFFICERS

President	Sue Class
Vice President	Charles Robinson
Treasurer	Chris Wagner
Secretary	Vicki Odenweller
Advisor	Mr. Frebault

This year the Falls Footlighters became a chapter of the National Thespians Society, an national association for drama groups. The club presented "The Night of January 16th," a courtroom comedy drama, "Pinch Me," a hilarious one-act, and a three-act comedy. Our social activities included attending dramatic presentations in the area such as UNCLE VANYA at the Cleveland Playhouse and the Kent State Players' version of ANASTASIA. We presented "Mardi Gras," the first costume dance in C.F.H.S. history and sponsored several other social functions throughout the year.

Steering Committee Representative	Fred Kiel
Advisor	Mr. Richmond

The Junior Council has had many profitable experiences this year despite the fact that the first year of a new club is difficult and often awkward. In accordance with the main purpose of our club, we have held discussions on predominant world affairs, visited the Cleveland Council, heard talks by noted men, and seen movies of great interest to satisfy our vision of the story behind the headlines of the foreign affairs. Our big accomplishment was participating in the Cleveland area mock United Nations Assembly in Lakewood. Our Council represented Japan and chose Ned Nakagawa, the C.F.S. exchange student, to help prepare the twelve elected representatives. The entire club benefited from this teaching: learning customs, government background, and political issues of Japan. The club owes a great deal of its initial success to Mrs. Wentz and Mr. Richmond for their patient and intelligent help. At our meetings we used parliamentary procedure and found it very effective.

Red Cross

Helping in any way they can, the Red Cross is always on hand, reliable and willing. Due to them, the second United Fund Drive was very successful. Help was also received by the blood mobile when it came to Chagrin in both the fall and the spring. This is a club we can always count on.

This year the Future Teachers of America have been able to continue the program of assisting elementary teachers with their classes. In doing this, the student is able to receive a true understanding of the teaching field so that he may decide whether or not he is really interested in going into the field of education. During our meetings throughout the year we have had speakers, movies, and discussions covering topics such as teaching in integrated schools, experiences encountered while student teaching, and advantages and disadvantages of teaching. There is no doubt that this has been a thoroughly enjoyable and worthwhile year.

The Leaders Club stems from the Girls' Athletic Association, and the purpose of it is to promote an interest in girls' physical education. The members assist the physical education teacher in her classes and other sports activities. During the course of the year, girls in Leaders Club participated in soccer, volleyball, and basketball games as well as in track activities. The games were played with similar organizations from other schools in the area and with the men faculty.

Varsity Club

Any boy who has earned a letter in a varsity sport is eligible for membership in the C.F.H.S. Varsity Club. Our main function this year has been to raise money in order that we may be of service to other organizations in need of financial aid. The club has raised this money in various ways: the members have sold basketball programs, spring jackets, tickets to the Sportsman Show, and have sponsored sock-hops and car washes. One other important function, although not money-making, is that the members of the Varsity Club have boosted the school pride. We have encouraged the wearing of letter sweaters, and have also painted signs with various slogans for the school and athletic events. A great deal of the success of the Varsity Club can be attributed to the fine leadership and get-ahead drive of our advisor, Coach Jim Thedieck.

Different, yes. The Camera Club is unusual in its purpose of organization. While increasing our knowledge of photography, the club has served in the extremely practical sense of being an economical method of developing and printing our own film. In addition to this, the club has aided the Zenith Staff in taking pictures of some organizations.

The Spanish Club has done many things this year. We attended the performance of José Greco and his Spanish dancers at Masonic Hall. Also the club has seen many Spanish movies at theaters in Loraine, Ohio. We are making plans for our annual club picnic which will be held in June when school is closed. All these things have helped make this year's Spanish Club a much-enjoyed activity for all members.

The Pep Band brightened up the basketball games this year by playing polkas and ballads. No one will ever forget the problems we had when there were no trumpets or bass drum player, when the lights all went out while we were playing The Star Spangled Banner, and when there was no music for the saxes. But regardless of all our little problems, we have enjoyed working together and have done our best to boost the morale of the students and other spectators at home basketball games.

The '58 Tigers started fast by winning their first three games, but they suffered a mid-season slump and lost four in a row. A final determined effort on the part of the entire team provided a thrilling upset over the favored Orange Lions in the last game of the season. This outstanding victory over our arch-rivals turned a so-so season into a successful one.

Coach Jim Thedieck

Despite the fact that the Tigers did not enjoy one of their better seasons, many thrills were provided for local fans throughout the basketball campaign. Final scores were a poor indication of the closeness and intensity of the games themselves. Seldom out of the game until the final minutes, the Tigers were always in there fighting and gave a good account of themselves in every game.

Varsity Track

The '59 Track outlook was a bright one. With the return of several State contenders, Coach Ralph Quesinberry was looking forward to a successful season. Art Davidson, Al Pickford, Orlo McKibben, and Dave Dunbar, all State runners-up last year, were expected to provide the nucleus for this year's team.

FIRST ROW: Shelton, Mitchell, Davidson. SECOND ROW: Otis, Stillman, Cahill, Pettibone. THIRD ROW: Hallstrom, McKibben, Dunbar, Johannisson, Pickford, Whaley.

So this is wrestling?

Wrestling

This was the first season that wrestling has been introduced into the school athletic curriculum. Under the capable tutelage of Coach Ray Tarnowski, a former wrestling champ himself, a large group of freshman-sophomore boys were taught the basic fundamentals of wrestling. It is hoped by Coach Tarnowski that, in the future, wrestling will become a major sport in CFHS.

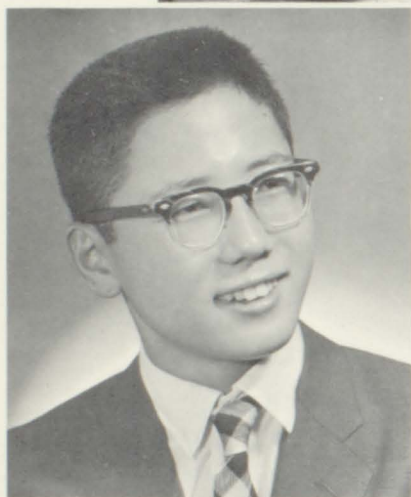

FIRST ROW: Noble, Cowlin, Engstrom, Biel, Gilson, Buus. SECOND ROW: Rice, Adler, Swan, Nakagawa, Alcorn, Carpenter. THIRD ROW: Coach Tarnowski, McNally, Robinson, Haldeman.

Exchange Students

ANNIE RIGOUTAT, France

NED NAKAGAWA, Japan

The '59 Seniors were uniquely fortunate this year to have TWO foreign exchange students. We were even more fortunate because these students were such outstanding people, extremely able to teach us their way of life. We will always remember and appreciate the opportunity that Annie and Ned have given us to understand people of other lands.

They have our best wishes for success in future years, for we know their abilities will carry them far.

Betty Lou, Jacqui, Sandy, Meta, Mary, Shirley, Vicki, Lee, Bill, Al, Phelps, John, Pat, and also Judy and Mary Lynn, wish to show their thanks.

Acknowledgement

In sincere appreciation of the encouragement and assistance given us in the planning and production of this yearbook, We, the Zenith Staff of 1959, wish to extend our sincerest thanks to Mr. Norman Fry, our most helpful advisor; Frosty Norton of the Village Studio, our indispensable photographer; Mr. Peter Prentner of the American Yearbook Company; Mr. Roland Gray and the school's art department; The Chagrin Valley HERALD; the merchants and businessmen of Chagrin Falls and the surrounding area; our parents, teachers, and fellow students; and everyone else who has helped make this book possible.
